THE HISTORY AND CRAFTSMANSHIP OF STAINED GLASS AT ALL SOULS EPISCOPAL CHURCH
PRESENTED BY JED BOERTLINE OF WASHINGTON ART GLASS STUDIOS

We are thrilled to announce that Jed Boertline, of Washington Art Glass, whose family has been caring for the windows of All Souls for nearly a century, has agreed to give a stained glass presentation to us on Saturday, October 25th at 2:30 pm.

Jeff Wells, Junior Warden, host and coordinator

A Piano and Flute Benefit Concert follows at 4pm - providing ASC an opportunity to invite the neighborhood for a delightful afternoon.

Jed's presentation will be no more than an hour and feature the following:

- ◇ His family's artisan history with stained glass
- ◇ His family's history with the stained glass at All Souls Church.
- ◇ A demonstration and discussion of the fabrication of stained stenciling, coloring etc.
- ◇ Discussion and questions about specific All Souls stained-glass windows

ALL SOULS CHURCH FLUTE AND PIANO BENEFIT CONCERT
Sat., OCT. 25, 4:00 pm

All Souls Episcopal Church presents Sara Zhu, flute, and David Palmer, piano in a chronological journey of collaborative music on Saturday, October 25, at 4:00 PM. Selections will include Bach, Gaubert, Hindemith, Palmer, and more.

Sara Zhu is a genre blending flutist, vocalist, and songwriter based in the Washington, DC area. Zhu performs regularly as both a leader and side-woman in many of DC's staple establishments including Blues Alley, The Kennedy Center, Strathmore, and The Kreeger Museum. She is featured on Alfred Yun's recent album, "Voice and Phenomenon," amongst many other recording projects. In addition to performing, Zhu is an avid educator, serving as the adjunct flute and jazz combo instructor at St. Mary's College of Maryland. Zhu is currently working on the first album with her alternative rock band, Your Trusted Officials. Their single, "Everglades," is currently available on all streaming platforms.

David Palmer is a music teacher, performer, and composer. Since moving to the DMV in 2020, he has worked as a piano teacher for children, a church musician, and an instructor for Wesley Seminary. He holds a Ph.D. in music theory from the Eastman School of Music, has a jazz trio, and plays music at a regional hospital and at a hospice facility.

Admission is free. Donations will be received for Woodley House, a neighborhood home for those with mental disorders.
