Dear friends,

I haven't sent out any letters for a while because I stay focused on the list of missionaries that I pray for every day. I want the Lord to bless them and give them souls for their faithfulness to the Lord in their service to Him. Since I keep in contact with them every week, I hear from them often and I keep my prayers up to date as much as possible.

The Lord has been good to me and keeps my health good. I can't go out and run a mile, but He gives me a clear mind as I pray for each missionary and He knows that I love each one that is part of my list. The best prayer for me is that He would keep me able and faithful in my prayers everyday.

I pray that He would keep you faithful in His service as well. God bless you and keep you faithful.
