Dear Partners in Ministry,

Our God is in His holy temple! What an encouraging reminder that we serve the living God who is always awake, hears our prayers and teaches us through His Word. May we humble ourselves in silence before the Almighty God and stand in awe of all His mighty works.

Conference - This past month we had the opportunity to participate in a wonderful Bible Conference that not only encouraged us spiritually but also gave us many opportunities to use and grow in Albanian. God is working in people's hearts, the Gospel is spreading, and Jesus is being glorified!

Outreach - As we evangelize the lost we see God opening doors and working in people's hearts. As we learn new words in the language it opens more opportunities to talk about the good news of Jesus Christ with those we are reaching. Neighbors, store workers, people on the street, they all need Jesus! I am also thankful for friends to go out witnessing with. As we were out witnessing in the city of Elbasan we ran into a guy we had shared the Gospel with 4 months earlier! We had been praying for him and He remembered exactly who I was. Flavio still needs to trust in Jesus, would you pray for Him? Paty also was speaking with a woman that said she was a Christian, but had never read the Bible. So she quickly took out a tract and shared Bible verses about how to be saved. Would you pray for these hearts to receive Christ as their Savior?

Blessings - Last month my sister Elizabeth left after spending six months with us here in Albania helping with the girls and in any way she could. We are so thankful for family that loves the Lord and the help she was to our family. Our hearts are full of the blessings of the Lord and all of His goodness. We pray for all of our supporters faithfully and we are so thankful for you all! May the Lord bless you richly! Your sacrifice makes it possible for us to be here working for the Lord!
