Salvation, Baptisms, and Weddings

We had a very busy February and we are grateful for how the Lord is working in the ministry. Samuel has been visiting Hope Baptist Church for a few weeks, after preaching a message on salvation, he called me the following day and we talked about the message. The following week he accepted Jesus as Savior! We also had four baptisms this month, two at Faith Baptist Church and two at Hope Baptist Church. We also had a very special day at Faith Baptist Church, Eric and Sofi got married on February 10, they met at the church, they got to know each other there and have served the Lord together in the music ministry. We are thrilled to see how God has brought them together! Please pray for them as they begin their a new life together!

We have another special wedding in March at Faith Baptist Church! Diego and Xoana met years ago but were recently saved, and they want to honor God with their lives, they will be getting married on March 15! We are excited for them! We also start back with the Bible College this month, the guys who are studying for the ministry are serving and directing specific ministries, they are faithful and continue to grown. God is at work at both Faith Baptist Church and Hope Baptist Church. Thank you for praying for the ministry God has given us!
