MINISTRIES

December 2025

Dear Praying Friends,

We thank God upon every remembrance of you all! We are continuing to seek His face and His guidance in our lives. I (Dan) had planned to step out of my full-time work and into full-time travel for ministry by the end of 2024. However, God has shown us through circumstances and His Word that our family and financial responsibilities need more attention at this time.

We will continue to minister for Bible translation. We will continue seeking meetings with local churches to present the translation project needs. As we are able, we will also travel to the translation projects for process development, maintenance, and launches. Our primary current responsibilities, however, will need to continue to be our family, my classes, and our finances. I trust that God will use the degree I am focusing on to do far more in the future for the continuance of Bible translation through newly trained translators in Africa and other needy areas of the world. God is good, and we know His plan is best.

Please pray with us about some opportunities we are pursuing that may allow us to begin some type of Bible translation training for other areas of Africa. We desire to launch new projects throughout the continent as God allows. We are excited about how God is providing contacts and ask that you pray for wisdom in navigating opportunities and obstacles. We trust you will have a blessed Christmas season worshiping our Savior Jesus Christ and sharing Him with others!

For His Word,
Dan and Jenn Olachea
