TO ICELAND...TO THE WORLD

Sept/Oct 2025

THE MICHAEL SHAVER FAMILY

Praying Friends,

We are thankful to the Lord for you. I tell churches often, Iceland has one of the highest costs of living and we certainly need finances to live there, but the most important thing that we need is prayer. I know it sounds cliché, but it is most definitely true. We need your prayers most. We know that you pray for us and we are so grateful for it.

The last two months have been a blessing! God has kept our schedule full, and we praise Him for it! We had five conferences and six single meetings. We also had multiple churches take us on. Several from previous months reached out as well as some of the new ones took us on. We have had an increase of close to eight percent of our needed support over the last two months. This was encouraging. We also had several meetings that have not committed yet but said it was likely to happen.

We are grateful for opportunities to serve during this time. My family and I were able to help a church plant with literature distribution the Saturday before their first service. Hundreds of brochures were passed out. It was exciting to see what the Lord was doing. On another occasion my boys and I knocked doors up and down the hills in West Virginia. Being from flat farmlands, we were caught a little off guard. Needless to say, we got some exercise that day. Lol.

The family is doing well. Rachel has been able to help the kids stay caught up on their homeschooling. They are even a little bit ahead of schedule, which is no small feat. I am finishing up a class with my schooling in the coming month too. We have applied for and received the children's passports. This is one of the first steps toward the immigration process. Pray for us as we continue forward with this. Immigration is certainly one of the big challenges and Iceland's system is currently in a changing state.

Thank you again for your faithful prayers and support. We love you all. I pray that your end of the year is wonderful and that God continues to bless you.

For Christ,

Michael Shaver
