

Dear pastors and praying friends,

No intro, straight to the good news—today is September 22, and we finally signed to be able to purchase our church property!

We still have to wait about a month until the property is listed as under our name, at which point we will have access to the building. Currently, the keys to the house, and our check, are with the real estate office, but once the house is listed under our name, we get the keys, and the sellers get the money. Please pray for this process to go quickly so we can begin the remodel process.

We are looking at scrapping our original remodel plan of knocking down walls, and instead building out the unused space of the property. This would give us more total space versus stretching the space we already have thinner. Once we get access to the property, we will be able to get a more accurate quote for the new plan, but please just keep this process in prayer as well, and for the Lord to continue providing. We have had several generous churches and individuals donate lately, and we appreciate each and every one of you.

The past 2 Sunday mornings, we have had 60+ people, which has forced us to have some men sit in the storage unit next to the auditorium to listen to the service in order for everyone to fit. God is blessing, and we are having several visitors of late. A larger building is a must at this point.

If you would like to give and help toward the construction costs, you can send an offering to:

Vision Baptist Missions, P.O. Box 647, Dawsonville, GA 30534 Attn: Grace Building - Kyle Shreve

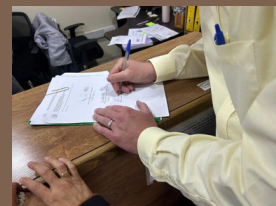

(Please make all checks payable to Vision Baptist Missions and include "Grace Building - Kyle Shreve" in the memo.)

In October, a friend and supporting pastor, Aaron Hartman, will be coming to visit the ministry here. The church I grew up in as a young man did not have a youth pastor, and Aaron was the youth pastor at a church up the road from us. He was functionally my youth pastor, and had a big impact on my life. He is now the pastor of that church, and we are excited to have him here with us. He will be preaching our faith promise missions conference, so please pray for that as well.

In Christ

Kyle, Hannah, Isabella, Isaiah, Isla, Shreve
