

PRAISE...
A Great Privilege, An Even Greater Responsibility
Psalm 150:1-6

I. Notice The Instruction To Praise (1-2)

Hebrew Words for “Praise” in the OT

- ~ “barak” (baw-rak) – To kneel down, to bless, adoration, abundantly, greatly, altogether, indeed, salute, thank, be still
- ~ “halal” (haw-lal) – To be clear, boast, rejoice, celebrate, thanksgiving for a harvest, merry, to give in marriage, worthy of glory, fame, hymn
- ~ “zamar” (zaw-mar) – To strike with the fingers, to touch the keys, play, make music, accompanied by vocal, celebrate in song, sing forth, to trim, to prune a vine
- ~ “yadah” (yaw-daw) – To hold out the hands, to throw a stone or arrow, to revere with extended hands, to cease wringing of the hands, to cast, confess, give thanks
- ~ “shabach” (shaw-bakh) – To address in a loud tone, command, give glory, to keep, to triumph, to adulate or adore someone
- ~ “towdah” (to-daw) – To avowal, adoration, a choir of worshippers

Greek Words for “Praise” in the NT

- ~ “ainos” (ahee-nos) – A story, praise of God
- ~ “doxa” (dox-ah) – To give glory, honor, dignity, truth, be accountable to, please, reputation, used in wide application
- ~ “epaineo” (e-pa-hee-ne-ho) – To applaud, laud, give commendation of or to
- ~ “humneo” (hoom-ne-ho) – A hymn, ode, song

- A. Person
- B. Place
- C. Power
- D. Performance
- E. Preeminence

II. Notice The Instruction Of Praise (3-5)

- A. Shouting
- B. Stringing
- C. Shaking
- D. Squeezing
- E. Striking
- F. Stepping

III. Notice The Inclusivity Of Praise (6)

- A. Scope
- B. Standard
- C. Summit