LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLE

Doug and Liz Pringle

Today we light the fourth candle of Advent, the Candle of Love, next to the Candles of Hope, Peace, and Joy.

Scripture tells us, "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. We love because God first loved us."

In Jesus Christ, the light of God's love chases away all the shadows of fear in our world: anger, greed, exploitation, hate.

Jesus said, "I am the light of the world; whoever follows me...will have the light of life."

All: As Christmas approaches, we wait for the fulfillment of the promise that "the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light!"

RESPONSE

Light one candle for love, one bright candle for love

H. Sorenson

He brings love to every heart, he comes, he comes

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Pastor Nancy Lincoln Reynolds

In this season of Advent, this season of waiting, we still so often find ourselves unwilling to wait upon Christ's coming. We allow despair to overshadow hope; we allow fear to undercut trust; we allow strife to overcome peace. Forgive us, Lord; help us to wait with confidence and to work with conviction in building up your coming kingdom, believing with our hearts, and minds, and spirits in your promise of the coming of Emmanuel, "God With Us."

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from The Confession of 1967)

Pastor Nancy Lincoln Reynolds

In Jesus Christ, God was reconciling the world to God's own self. Jesus Christ is God with humanity. Jesus is the eternal Son of God, who became human and lived among us to fulfill the work of reconciliation. He is present in the church by the power of the Holy Spirit to continue and complete his mission. This work of the Triune God is the foundation of all confessional statements about God, humanity, and the world. Therefore, the church calls all people to be reconciled to God and to one another.
