This week at Saint Anthony's

It was a full and joyful week here at St. Anthony School. As we prepared for our upcoming bazaar, many exciting learning experiences were also taking place both on and off campus. Our 2nd, 3rd, and 4th graders had the opportunity to visit the Kihei Police Station, where they learned more about the vocation of serving as first responders. Students were especially engaged as they observed the K9 unit in action, explored a SWAT vehicle, and heard firsthand what a day in the life of a motorcycle officer looks like.

You may not have known that last week was National Vice Principal Week, but we were still able to celebrate our very own Kumu Koa —just a little later and in a very special way. Under the guise of an “emergency situation,” she was brought to the grade school campus, where she was surprised by the entire student body singing and dancing to ‘O‘iwi E. It was a beautiful and emotional moment, as she was greeted with heartfelt posters, handmade cards, leis, and touching words of appreciation from our students. Thank you to Kumu Koa for your dedication and love shown towards the students and the school. We appreciate you.

*Peace and Blessings,

Burning Heart Moments

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Acts 2:14, 22-33 • Peter's discourse
- ▶ 1 Peter 1:17-21 • Filial obedience
- ▶ Luke 24:13-35 • The Road to Emmaus

The chosen readings continue to follow a pattern through this Easter season. The first reading is a speech given by Peter in the Acts of the Apostles soon after the Resurrection. He is speaking to a crowd of Jews, connecting the dots for them between King David and Jesus. He explains that David's statement of faith—"you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption"—was a prophecy of Jesus' resurrection. The Gospel tells the story of another appearance of the risen Jesus to his friends.

Luke gives us a beautiful story of a common Christian shared experience: having Jesus present with us in a time sadness or distress but not recognizing him at the moment. We might wonder why "their eyes were kept from recognizing him." We have probably also had experiences where Jesus' presence was clear to us even if it wasn't clear to others. For example, we might know someone whose spouse has died. In her grief she might feel entirely abandoned by God. From the outside, though, we can see how lovingly God is still caring for her. We can recognize how she is surrounded by the compassionate and kind acts of her friends and other family members. For some reason, she simply can't experience that as God's presence at the moment. Hopefully, with time, she will be able to look back on that "journey to Emmaus" and realize how Jesus was present with her.

The experience of not recognizing Jesus at the moment happens in good times too. Unfortunately, we don't always associate our "burning heart moments" with Jesus. St. Ignatius taught that the more we can pay attention to the movements of our hearts, the more we can discern how God is present to us and what God is inviting

LORD, IF I PRAY INTO MY BOWL, WILL YOU SPEAK TO ME WITH THE LETTERS OF MY ALPHABET SOUP?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

It means NO

"Their eyes were opened and they recognized him."

Sheepish Question:
As I follow Jesus today, where do I look and listen for him?

us to in the moment. For example, when considering a job change, or deepening a relationship, or taking up some new endeavor, if we feel "our hearts burning within us" that is a sign of Jesus' presence. Ignatius taught that, as in Luke's story, it helps to share these burning heart moments with someone else rather than keep them to ourselves. Another person can strengthen and validate our experience, share in our joy, and accompany us on the road back toward the Resurrection, not away from it.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Share about a time when you realized Jesus' presence with you after the fact, even though you didn't "catch" it at the time.
- 2 When have you had a burning heart moment that clued you in to something important in your life?

APRIL 19 - TRADITIONS

"When I go to Rome, I fast on Sunday.
But in Milan, I do not.
Follow the custom of whatever church you attend – if you do not want to give or receive scandal."

Saint Ambrose of Milan

APRIL 20 - TRUE POVERTY

"We think sometimes that poverty is only being hungry, naked and homeless.
The poverty of being unwanted, unloved and uncared for is the greatest poverty. We must start in our own homes to remedy this kind of poverty."

Saint Teresa of Calcutta

APRIL 21 - SUFFERING

"Suffering is a great grace. Through suffering, the soul becomes like the Savior. In suffering, love becomes crystallized. The greater the suffering, the purer the love."

Saint Faustina

APRIL 22 - SILENCE

"Silence is a gift of God – to let us speak more intimately with Him."

Saint Vincent Pallotti

APRIL 23 - RESURRECTION

"Let us not forget that Jesus not only suffered, but also rose in glory. So, too, we go to the glory of the Resurrection
by way of suffering and the Cross."

Saint Maximillian Kolbe

APRIL 24 - GENEROSITY

"Be generous to the poor orphans and those in need. The man to whom our Lord has been liberal ought not to be stingy. We shall one day find in Heaven as much rest and joy as we ourselves have dispensed in this life."

Saint Ignatius of Loyola

APRIL 25 - OUR CROSSES IN LIFE

"The Cross will not crush you. If its weight makes you stagger, its power will also sustain you."

Saint Padre Pio
