The Holy Spirit Comes

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Acts 2:1-11 • Apostles receive the gift of tongues
- ▶ 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 • One body in Christ
- ▶ John 20:19-23 • "Receive the Holy Spirit"

If you ask a group of people how the apostles received the gift of the Holy Spirit, some will say through tongues of fire while others will say that Jesus breathed on them. We get the first image from today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles. The second image comes from John's Gospel. How the apostles historically received the gift of the Spirit is less important than what resulted when the Spirit filled them. In both stories, the apostles changed from a group in hiding, fearful for their lives, to bold and confident proclaimers of God's great works through Jesus.

In the Gospel reading today, Jesus breathed on the apostles just as God breathed life into the first human. Like the readings from John's Gospel that we've heard the last few weeks, Jesus is showing his friends that he is one and the same as God. Just as the first human came alive with God's breath, so the apostles come alive in a new way when they receive the Holy Spirit.

Before the coming of the Spirit, they were a fearful, closed group, hiding out, paralyzed to continue Jesus' ministry of healing and teaching. Once Jesus came to them and offered them his peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they immediately transformed. Rejoicing replaced fear, and the willingness to move outward to minister to others replaced their desire for safety.

After Jesus breathed on the disciples, he tells them, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." This verse is often interpreted as the origin of priests' authority to forgive

"To each individual the manifestation of the spirit is given for some benefit."

Sheepish Question:
When, lately, have I felt the Spirit prompting me in a way that serves others.

sins, but it applies to all of us. Jesus is pointing out the power we all have in choosing how we respond to hurt. When we forgive others, we not only free them from our anger and resentment, we free ourselves from carrying those emotions. On the other hand, if we retain someone's sins by refusing to forgive them, we are holding ourselves bound by anger, resentment, blame, and hurt. We are just as much the prisoner in the relationship. Our refusal to forgive affects not only the offending person, but us, as well.

Questions of the Week

- 1 When have you had the privileged experience of watching someone else move from fear to courage? How did God/the Holy Spirit play a role in that?
- 2 When have you experienced freedom by being forgiven by someone? When have you been able to free someone else by offering forgiveness?

ALOHA MAI KAKOU

We are proud to share the accomplishments of our St. Anthony student-athletes, Lilyana Duarte and June Wu, who represented our school at the Hawaii State Track Meet in the pole vault event. Lily earned an outstanding 3rd place finish, reaching a new personal record of 11'1", while June delivered a strong performance, tying for 7th place among the top athletes in the state. Competing against more than 50 teams, their combined efforts placed St. Anthony School 20th overall—a remarkable achievement at this highly competitive meet. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Coach Al Duarte and Athletic Director Greg Harris for their guidance, encouragement, and dedication to our student-athletes. Coach Al also credits their success to the strength and conditioning training provided by the Sports Academy under the leadership of Coach Vernon Patao. Congratulations to Lily and June for representing St. Anthony School with excellence and pride. Your hard work and commitment continue to inspire our school community.

As we prepare for the final week of the school year, several special events are ahead, including finals, our high school sendoff, and graduation celebrations. We warmly invite you to join us for the High School Sendoff on Tuesday, May 26 at 6:30pm, beginning with Mass, followed by a potluck dinner and program. This evening will be a time to recognize and honor our students and staff who will be moving on to the next chapter of their lives. We are also blessed to welcome special guests from O'ahu who will be joining us in celebration: Bishop Larry Silva, Fr. Ace Tui, Fr. Dario Rinaldi, Dr. Llewellyn Young (Superintendent of Hawaii Catholic Schools), and Ms. Mandy Thronas-Brown (Assistant Superintendent). Our Preschool Graduation will take place on Thursday, May 28 at 10:00am. We will conclude the week with our Baccalaureate Mass on Friday, May 29 at 8:15am, followed by the High School Graduation at 1:00pm. We hope you can join us as we come together in gratitude and celebration of these meaningful milestones.

*Peace and Blessings,
