Aloha mai kakou,

The Lord truly continues to bless our school 'ohana with his love, grace and mercy.

The St. Anthony School 'ohana came together for the first time this year for their annual Back to School 'Ohana Night. We began in prayer by Fr. Larry Denis followed by introductions of staff. Immediately after that, teachers opened up their classrooms and families got to walk through the rooms to get a glimpse of the life of a St. Anthony student. To close out the evening, all returned to the grade school field for food and fellowship.

As you know, the teachers are the backbone of the school. With the budget being tight this year, I've asked teachers to put together a wish list for their classroom. If you're able to gift them with any of these items, please contact me. These are the two ways that you can indicate a gift:

- You can be very specific with your donation and say, "Books for Mr. Harris' class or any teacher's wish list" because if there are duplicate donors for Mr. Harris the gift can go towards another classroom.
  - very general and say "Teacher wish list".
- We greatly appreciate any blessings you can shower upon them.

The annual St. Anthony Golf Tournament will be held on November 8, 2025 at the Maui Dunes Golf Course. If you have experience planning a golf tournament we'd love your help. Join the committee to help with organizing the event, securing prizes, getting golfers and coordinating food. Please contact the office at (808) 244-4190.

Mahalo from the staff for your continued prayers and support.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time - Gospel Reflection

Readings: Isaiah 66: 18-21. Psalm 117: 1, 2. Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13. Luke 13: 22-30.

As summer wanes, a return to the rat race of every day life looms ahead. Opening the Word today, we hear another exhortation to approach it with hope.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "making His way to Jerusalem," where His agonizing death looms large. Someone inquires about the prospects of salvation: Would it be for all or only a few? To the Master, a number is not the issue; urgent effort matters much more.

"Strive," the Teacher says, "to enter through the narrow gate." The imagery recalls the gate to the sacred city of Jerusalem. When closed, it affords only one person at a time access through a small passageway. One cannot get through it simply by tagging along ("we ate and drank in Your company") or by mere association ("you taught in our streets"). Entry is possible only through a determined decision and the personal effort ("striving") it takes to follow Him. For those who do, no matter their origins (the four directions alluding to Gentile lands), the salvific rest they seek ("reclining at table") awaits them.

In today's second reading, the striving that Jesus teaches as necessary for salvation comes into focus as a matter of "discipline." The passage from Hebrews urges believers to shape up ("strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees") and "endure your trials" as a matter of training, not unlike what they learned in the process of growing up.

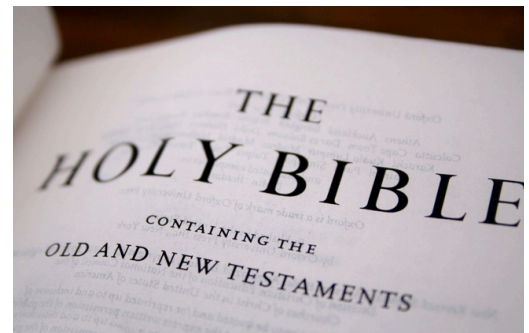

That process may well include painful moments of being "reproved" by parental correction or "scourged" by unwanted punishments. But a loving parent – like the "God who treats you as sons" – imposes discipline in the knowledge that trials and tribulations can serve as learning experiences. Even Jesus, "Son though He was – learned obedience from what He suffered" (Hebrews 5:8).

By discipline, a disciple learns to endure the trials of life as the way to enter into God's kingdom. Striving to endure tribulation takes effort. Effort issues from hope – a hope founded on the God whose kingdom it is.

In today's first reading, Isaiah prophesies about the antecedent activity of God on Israel's behalf. It is God who "comes to gather the nations." It is God who "sets a sign among them." It is God whose glory is proclaimed and to whom offerings are made on His "holy mountain."

Today's responsorial psalm, the shortest hymn of all, extols this God as worthy of praise from all people. Their praise and ours recognizes the divine attributes of steadfast kindness and fidelity on which the covenant and the kingdom are founded.

Knowing the faithful protection of God, as revealed in the redemption wrought by God's Son, is the Good News that gives us hope, inspires us to endure our trials, and enables us to strive to enter His kingdom.

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
From the house of the Lord we bless you."

Psalm 118:26

Prayer with Scripture

What signs do we see God
setting among the nations
in today's world?

In what ways do we need to strengthen the drooping
hands of our ministries?

How can we reach out more effectively to engage merely associational Catholics?

The WISDOM of the SAINTS

365 Days of Inspiration

Each week, we post seven inspirational quotes from various saints for you to meditate and pray upon daily.

AUGUST 24 - FAILURE

"When we are conscious of having failed and done wrong, we must humble ourselves before God, implore His pardon, then quietly move ahead. Our defects should make us humble, but never cowardly."

Saint Clement Mary Hofbauer

AUGUST 25 - OUR CROSSES IN LIFE

"Do as the merchant does with his merchandise: Make a profit on every item. Do not allow the loss of the tiniest fragment of the true cross. It may only be the sting of a horsefly or the prick of a pin that annoys you. It may be a neighbor's little eccentricities, some unintended slight, the insignificant loss of a penny, some small restlessness of soul, a light pain on your limbs. Make a profit on every item as the grocer does and you will soon be wealthy in God."

Saint Louis de Montfort

AUGUST 26 - PRAYER

"We must pray without tiring for the salvation of mankind does not depend upon material success, but on Jesus alone."

Saint Francis Xavier Cabrini

AUGUST 27 - SACRIFICE

"The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices. He is afraid when we are humble and good. He is especially afraid when we love Jesus very much. He runs away when we make the Sign of the Cross."

Saint Anthony of Padua

AUGUST 28 - CHARITY

"Charity is that with which no man is lost and without which no man is saved."

Saint Robert Bellarmine

AUGUST 29 - THANKSGIVING

"Thank God ahead of time."

Blessed Solanus Casey

AUGUST 30 - SERVING GOD

"I want to live as He wishes. I want to serve Him as He likes and nothing more."

Saint Rose Venerini
