The WISDOM of the SAINTS

365 Days of Inspiration

Each week, we post seven inspirational quotes from various saints for you to meditate and pray upon daily.

DECEMBER 21 - GENEROSITY

"Reflect that, in reality, you have a greater need to serve the poor than they have of your service."

Saint Angela Merici

DECEMBER 22 - PRAYER

"There is no danger if our prayer is without words or reflection because the good success of prayer depends neither on words nor on study. It depends upon the simple raising of our minds to God. The more simple and stripped of feeling it is, the surer it is."

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal

DECEMBER 23 - GOOD WORKS

"A tree is known by its fruit; a man by his deeds. A good deed is never lost. He who sows courtesy reaps friendship. He who plants kindness gathers love."

Saint Basil the Great

DECEMBER 24 - SECRET FAITH

"The most beautiful act of faith is the one made in darkness, in sacrifice, and with extreme effort."

Saint Padre Pio

DECEMBER 25 - GENEROSITY

"Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God, if we have given what we could."

Saint Gregory Nazianzen

DECEMBER 26 - THE SAINTS

"The saints must be honored as friends of Christ and children and heirs of God. Let us carefully observe the manner of life of all the apostles, martyrs, ascetics, and just men who announced the coming of the Lord. Let us emulate their faith, charity, hope, zeal, life, patience under suffering, and perseverance unto death so that we may share their crowns of glory."

Saint John of Damascus

DECEMBER 27 - READING

"Only God knows the good that can come about by reading one good Catholic book."

Saint John Bosco

Following a Dream

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Isaiah 7:10-14 • Birth of Emmanuel
- Romans 1:1-7 • Greetings from Paul
- Matthew 1:18-24 • The birth of Jesus

We know very little about Jesus' earthly father, Joseph. From these few verses, we see a picture of a sensitive man of great integrity who was willing to change direction in trust when given guidance from God. Just as Mary was asked to take a tremendous leap of faith in saying yes to bearing Jesus, Joseph also was asked to trust in a situation that didn't make rational sense.

According to Jewish tradition, Mary and Joseph were legally married although they were still in their "engagement period." We can imagine his great inner turmoil upon discovering Mary was pregnant but not through him. It would have been a great shame to Joseph, personally and culturally. Legally, he was permitted to have her stoned to death, but he chose the more compassionate route, deciding to divorce her quietly rather than have her publicly humiliated and killed. That way, she would be able to return to the protection of her family to raise the child.

A dream changed everything. Without any guarantees that what he dreamed was real or trustworthy, Joseph woke up and followed the angel's instructions. Then three other times in Jesus' early life Joseph did what he was commanded in a dream, taking Jesus to Egypt to escape Herod and settling in the town of Nazareth to raise him. In doing so, he saved Jesus' life. It took both him and Mary working together and being open to unimagined directions to bring Jesus safely to adulthood.

Sheepish Question:

Where have I recognized Christ coming into my life this week?

Questions of the Week

- 1 Share a story of a parent you know having the courage to do something that seemed crazy, counter-cultural, or just plain different, but proved to be for the best of his/her child.
- 2 Have you ever had any experiences of receiving directions or guidance from God that made you change course and do something different than what you had planned? How did you know to trust it?

The Fourth Sunday of Advent - Gospel Reflection

Readings: Isaiah 7:10-14. Psalm 24:1-2, 3-4, 5-6. Romans 1:1-7. Matthew 1:18-24

The signs accompanying this time of year now invite closer attention. Opening the Word today, we hear familiar stories that raise our awareness of the calling that is Christmas.

In the first reading, Isaiah offers the Lord's aid to King Ahaz and invites him to seek an all-encompassing sign of it ("deep" or "high"). But Ahaz refuses. He has already asked neighboring Assyria for military help. The prophet calls out the king's feigned humility ("I will not tempt the Lord") and wearying leadership by announcing, instead, a divine sign: the conception and birth of a Son whose identity (His name) will reveal God's being is with His people ("Emmanuel").

The responsorial psalm beckons the same by calling for the Lord (the real "King of Glory") to enter into the world that is His.

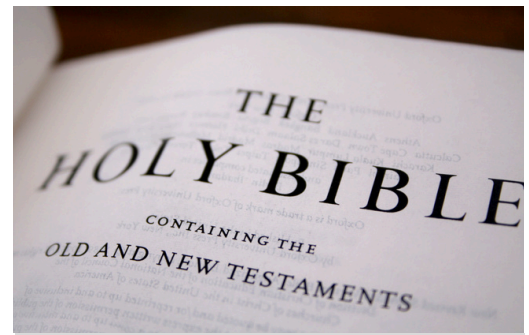

Today's Gospel reading narrates how that glorious coming came about. In a revelatory dream, an angel makes Joseph aware of what the nosey villagers know: that his betrothed is with child. Already contracted for marriage, but not yet living with Joseph, Mary's surprising situation merits condemnation (Deuteronomy 22:20-21).

Joseph intends to stay true to his character: He chooses to avoid shaming Mary publicly. His righteousness is affirmed when he learns that the Child "has been conceived" by God (as the passive verb implies) for a providential reason (to "fulfill" the prophecies) and redemptive purpose (to "save" God's people).

To be born of this "young, unmarried woman" (later translated in the Septuagint as "virgin"), the Child will be a sign to all – the "Emmanuel" foretold by Isaiah centuries before. Now aware of what is really going on, Joseph demonstrates his righteousness by obeying the Lord, even at great social cost to himself.

That same faith-inspired awareness leads to the Christian calling. In today's second reading, Paul expresses this to the Romans by going beyond the standard greeting to extend "grace to you and peace." Those divinely infused gifts ("from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ") flow from the realization of salvation history – in the fulfillment of what God promised through His prophets, in what the Son of God taught as Gospel, and in the power of God made evident "through resurrection from the dead." These historic happenings underlie Paul's own allegiance (a "slave") to Christ Jesus, as well as his apostolic mission to make believers aware of their own calling "to belong to Jesus Christ" and to be "holy" as a community living in conformity with the gift they, too, have received.

That gracious gift is coming again at Christmas. The signs might point to a secular holiday, but the advent of Christ's Nativity calls us to the holy awareness of how God is with us still.

“Behold, the virgin
shall be with child
and bear a son,
and they shall name
him Emmanuel.”

Matthew 1:23

Pray with Scripture

In what ways do we experience the “grace of apostleship” in our ministries?
