In Life Everlasting: Heaven, Hell, Death, and Judgment, Catholic scholars Dr. Edward Sri and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow guide you through the Church's teachings on the last things—the great realities that await every human soul. In five focused sessions, they draw from Scripture, the Catechism, and the wisdom of the Church to show how death, judgment, heaven, and hell are not abstract ideas meant to inspire fear, but profound truths that illuminate how we are called to live here and now.

Through engaging video presentations and the companion study book, you and your group will reflect deeply on what it means to live each day in light of eternity. The sessions offer clear teaching, reflection questions, and opportunities for discussion, making it simple for leaders to foster meaningful conversation and prayerful discernment.

Life Everlasting will help participants see how God's plan for our eternal destiny gives purpose to our struggles, clarity to our decisions, and hope for the future. By the end of this study, you will walk away with a renewed vision of your daily life, strengthened by the promise of eternal life with God.

ALOHA MAI KAKOU,

Catholic Schools Week is a meaningful time to reflect on the purpose and impact of Catholic education – not only within our school community, but throughout our parish and beyond.

At St. Anthony School, our mission creates a ripple effect. It begins with parents who believe in the value of a faith-centered education and partner with us in forming their children academically, spiritually, and morally. It is strengthened by teachers who see their work as a calling and joyfully share their love of God with their students. It is lived out each day by our students, who strive to put their faith into action through kindness, compassion, and service.

This ripple extends even further through the faithful support of the parishioners of St. Anthony Church and the lasting connection of our alumni. Through prayers, encouragement, shared traditions, and continued involvement, our parish and alumni help sustain and strengthen the mission of Catholic education for future generations.

This is what Catholic education offers our world – and what our world needs more of.

We are grateful to our entire parish community for being an essential part of this shared mission.

With gratitude,
Mary Jean S. Bega
St. Anthony School
Po'o Kula (Principal)

He Practiced What He Preached

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Isaiah 8:23-9:3 • The Prince of Peace
- 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17 • Factions
- Matthew 4:12-23 • Jesus in Capernaum

After Jesus' baptism and temptation in the desert (a peak experience followed by a period of intense testing) he is primed to begin the work that he has prepared his whole life to be able to do. Jesus begins in the small, nondescript town of Capernaum populated mostly by Gentiles (non-Jews). Looking back in scripture, Matthew noticed that specific area had been promised a savior who would bring light to their world of darkness. For all the Jews in his audience, Matthew makes the point that Jesus was the fulfillment of that promise from the prophet Isaiah hundreds of years earlier. Matthew is trying to show that Jesus came to live and minister to and among both Jews and Gentiles and to invite all of them to the fullness of life he was teaching.

Jesus begins his public ministry sounding like John the Baptist. "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." We might interpret that now as "Get busy. Get serious. It's time to start living in God's way. There isn't much time left." Then Jesus calls Peter, Andrew, James, and John to be his helpers and companions as he gets busy healing the sick and proclaiming the Good News. If only everyone who preached repentance and the kingdom of God would get busy practicing what they preached! .

"Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Sheepish Question:

What recent occurrences have lifted my spirit and hope?

Questions of the Week

1 What leaders or spiritual teachers have you experienced to be exclusive in terms of who they are speaking or preaching to? What leaders or spiritual teachers have you experienced to be open and inclusive in the way they welcome and invite all to be a part of a larger movement?

2 Whom do you know who lives with integrity and regularly practices what they preach?

The WISDOM of the SAINTS

365 Days of Inspiration

Each week, we post seven inspirational quotes from various saints for you to meditate and pray upon daily.

JANUARY 25 - THE CROSS

"Whenever you are given a cross, be sure to embrace it with humility and gratitude. If God, in His infinite goodness, favors you with a cross of some importance, be sure to thank Him in a special way."

Saint Louis de Montfort

JANUARY 26 - PRAYER

"The greater and more persistent your confidence in God, the more abundantly you will receive all that you ask."

Saint Albert the Great

JANUARY 27 - GRACE

"Grace comes after tribulation."

Saint Rose of Lima

JANUARY 28 - VIRTUE

"We can never know how patient or humble someone is when everything is going well with him. But when those who should cooperate with him do exactly the opposite, then we can know. A man has as much patience and humility as he has then, and no more."

Saint Francis of Assisi

JANUARY 29 - HAPPINESS

"The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment, and to thank God for all that He, in His goodness, sends to us day after day."

Saint Giana Molla

JANUARY 30 - DISAPPOINTMENT

"If disappointed, do not say hard things. Only think a little, pray a little, and try to remember that God will bring about what is best in God's own time."

Saint Mary MacKillop

JANUARY 31 - MATERIAL POSSESSIONS

"Aspire not to have more, but to be more."

Saint Oscar Romero
