- Gross Earnings: $58,886.12
- Expenses: $29,496.21
- Net Proceeds: Nearly $30,000

Together, we've proven that teamwork, faith, and aloha make all things possible.

*'A'ohe hana nui ke alu 'ia —
No task is too big when done together by all.*

MAHALO AND CONGRATULATIONS TO BISHOP LARRY SILVA!

A heartfelt mahalo to all who helped make this milestone celebration so special for Bishop Larry Silva as he marked his 50th Anniversary of Priesthood.

The celebration began with a beautiful Mass at St. Anthony Church and concluded with a festive gathering at Binhi At Ani Filipino Cultural Center—a memorable evening filled with gratitude, aloha, and joyful fellowship as we honored our faithful shepherd who has led the Diocese of Honolulu for the past 20 years.

Through the generosity of all who attended and contributed, the event raised $11,000, which was presented to Bishop Larry to support the restoration of the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace in Honolulu.

Our sincere appreciation to the planning committee, parish communities, and friends who shared their time, energy, resources, flowers, and talents to make this celebration a true expression of love and unity. Together, we celebrated a remarkable milestone of faith and service!

Memorial Gift Announcement

Honoring the Life and Legacy of

Lorna Funkim Zane

St. Anthony School Class of 1950

St. Anthony School is deeply honored to announce a transformative bequest of $360,000 from the late Lorna Funkim Zane, a proud graduate of the Class of 1950, whose life of faith, service, and generosity continues to inspire our community.

Lorna lived a life of compassion, grace, and devotion. She earned her Master of Science in Nursing and became a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist, dedicating her career to the care and healing of others. Lorna also served with distinction in the United States Army, carrying with her a spirit of discipline, excellence, and integrity that marked all she did.

Her deep faith in God guided every step of her life. Lorna's prayer life was rich and constant, and she lived her Catholic faith with humility and joy. Her generous remembrance of her alma mater, St. Anthony School, is a reflection of her gratitude for the foundation of faith and learning she received here on Maui even as she lived in Texas for so many years away from her beloved island home.

This extraordinary gift will provide enduring support for St. Anthony School's mission—to form hearts and minds for life and leadership through faith, academics, and aloha. It stands as a beautiful testimony to the power of one life to touch generations to come.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Lorna and her family and pray for the repose of her soul. May she rest in God's eternal peace and continue to intercede for our school, that we may remain faithful to God's will and purpose.

Those who wish to honor Lorna's memory or learn more about planned giving opportunities to support the future of St. Anthony School may contact the school office at (808) 244-4190 or email mainoffice@sasmaui.org

Remembrance Prayer

God our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command, we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.
I pray in hope for my family,
relatives and friends,
and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
may they rejoice in Your kingdom,
where all our tears are wiped away.
Unite us together again in one family,
to sing Your praise forever and ever.

Amen.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed - Gospel Reflection

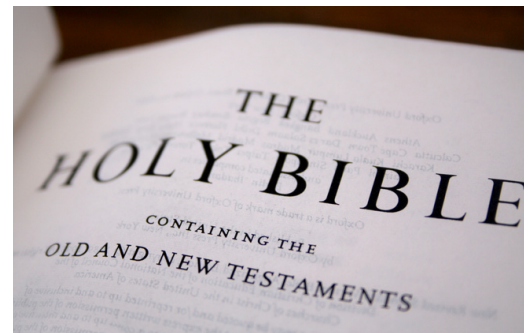

Readings: Wisdom 3:1-9. Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6. Romans 5:5-11. John 6:37-40.

I have usually found seminarians to be very responsive to a close reading of Dante's "Purgatorio," the second volume of the "Divine Comedy." Despite the gulf of many centuries, there are abundant commonalities between the 21st century reader and the medieval vision of those who climb the steps to a blessed, sanctified state.

The path up the seven-story mountain, as the pilgrims are purified from one dangerous state of sin to a lesser form of veniality, is quite steep. Unlike "Inferno," which encompasses its own levels of punishment for eternity and from which nobody escapes or becomes sanctified, or "Paradiso," whose saints embody an interplanetary, eternal state of blessedness difficult for us to imagine, the state of ongoing purgation has a plot driven by an essential virtue: hope. The lesson we can draw from commemorating All Souls' Day is that God's mercy is constitutive of His very identity. We have reason to embody this Year of Hope, a jubilee celebrating a climb that urges us toward a vision of the Trinity.

Hope as a state of purgation demands a faith filled soul, as today's first reading tells us when it says of those who have departed this life, "chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of Himself." Christian discipleship is also disciplineship, which knows that our trials bear the fruit not of bitterness, but of hope. That becoming a hopeful community, we are transformed. We are "greatly blessed" and worthy of a vision of the love of God. Not accidentally, the responsorial psalm sings joyfully of the Lord as shepherd who accompanies us on a journey toward "restful waters" where "He refreshes my soul." Echoing the covenant to abide with us forever, Jesus tells His disciples in today's Gospel that He will not lose anything that the Father has given Him. That means us, living and deceased.

An important theological point that should never escape us or those to whom we minister, underlined by Paul's admonition to the Romans, is that we do not justify ourselves or sanctify ourselves. We cooperate with God's saving plan toward reconciliation by striving up the mountain through the virtues of faith, hope, and love. The invitation to the people of God today may well be to allow God to bring His beloved dead to Himself through the aid of our prayers. The final testimony of a hopeful journey through life is an invigorated prayer life with and for others, full of joy and not despair, reconciled in a love full of trust that the risen Christ is with us.

"For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life"

John 6:40

Prayer with Scripture

How do I understand my own mortality?

Is my ministry and preaching full of hope?

Where have I found the Lord in "restful waters"?
