GOLF TOURNAMENT SUCCESS!

A BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF STRENGTH IN UNITY

What an incredible day it was for our parish and school community! Our 2025 SAS Golf Tournament was a tremendous success, and it was all thanks to the amazing volunteers who gave so generously of their time and talents. Parents, parishioners, alumni, and friends all came together with one goal—to support our school and have fun doing it. The spirit of teamwork, laughter, and friendship could be felt everywhere, from the first tee to the last putt.

The funds raised from the tournament go directly to support our athletic program, helping our student athletes continue to grow in skill, discipline, and teamwork. But beyond the financial success, what truly stood out was the sense of community and shared purpose that filled the day. Watching so many people from different parts of our parish and school family come together reminded us of what Strength in Unity really means.

Events like our golf tournament are more than just fundraisers—they are a witness to the love and dedication that make our parish and school such a special place. When we work together, great things happen. Thank you to everyone who helped organize, who volunteered, who played, who supported the tournament in any way. Your efforts made this event successful, but, more importantly, deeply meaningful for all involved.

Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - Gospel Reflection

Readings: Malachi 3:19-20a. Psalm 98:5-6, 7-8, 9. 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12. Luke 21:5-19.

We do not like being caught unaware or unprepared, do we? The liturgical year has set a mousetrap in November. The preceding Sundays have not given us the biblical and liturgical signals that typically tell us that the "end" is near. Today's readings for this penultimate Sunday in Ordinary Time, sandwiched as it is between two great feasts – the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica and the Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King – burst forth with an apocalyptic imagination of a prophet on fire with God's justice.

The first reading begins, "Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble." Malachi's use of the simile "blazing like an oven" suggests that something has been baking and is ready to be brought to the table. The heat will be so intense that these evildoers will be reduced to "stubble," leaving them "neither root nor branch." Who or what is the cause of this sacred inferno? "The sun of justice with its healing rays." It would not be the first time, either in Hollywood disaster movies or the biblical imagination, that catastrophic fire has been deployed to forecast the ruin of some and the salvation of a few. In an unusual reversal, however, Malachi says that salvation will come from the fire itself, the sun of justice. He will not carry destruction, but "healing rays."

Similarly, Jesus asks His listeners to be prepared and to live in the space of holy perseverance. Leave the future manifestation of God to the divine will and look here and now for the disclosure of holy icons of the kingdom. Paul asks the Thessalonians to imitate him in simply carrying on works of charity and justice. Stop minding the business of others; do not expect to be served by others, but instead work toward equality. This advice dates from antiquity: Model yourself on the society of the virtuous and you will find virtue. If you want to be just, imitate the behavior of the righteous. Get off TikTok and volunteer at a soup kitchen.

Jesus tells us not to be distracted by thrills, excitements and imposters of a messiah. Indeed, the messianic moment is already in our midst by Christ's presence through the wisdom He has given us to continue to witness to the Word. Can we live in the "almost but not yet" moment typical of the Lucan narrative? Waiting for the Lord until the end while we carry on with works of justice and mercy is harder than imagining a spectacle. These acts of charity should be so visible that they themselves witness to the coming of the Lord. We will not get there without perseverance and grace and listening to the wisdom of Jesus speaking to us in Word and Sacrament.

"You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By perseverance, you will secure your lives."

Luke 21:17-19

Prayer with Scripture

Do I have enough patience for charity?

Who are the people I look to as models of virtue?

What does it look like for me to be prepared to meet the Lord?
