I am especially grateful for your understanding and support while I was away a couple of weeks to be with my dad and family in his final days. Please know how deeply we appreciate the love and generosity you have shown to our family.

MAHALO NUI LOA!

FROM THE ST. ANTHONY CHURCH CRAFT CLUB!

It is with gratitude we extend our appreciation to our St. Anthony Church community for your donations and support at our recent Christmas Craft & Bake Sale! Because of your generous financial support, we were able to raise $8,723 to help our Church with maintenance projects!

"Behind the scenes" ... money for craft supplies and ingredients were donated months before the Sale! On Friday ... jams, pickled onions, salsa and other preserves were dropped off and refrigerated for the weekend! And on Saturday and Sunday mornings ... freshly baked pies, cookies, cakes, bread pudding, cinnamon buns, Chinese pretzels and Asian sweet treats were donated along with dish gardens & plants! Finally on Sunday night ... the volunteers came to help pack up the unsold merchandise and clean up!

A special "Thank You" to the Na Lima Kokua (Helping Hands) Craft Club members for sharing their creative talents, for planning the Sale and for hosting our fellow parishioners after each of the masses!

There is a Hawaiian proverb that says:
'A`ohe hana nui ke alu `ia` (No task is too big when shared by all).

WEEKLY NEWS!

Dear Parish Families,

As the season goes on, I've been thinking a lot about gratitude - not the big, fancy kind, but the everyday moments we sometimes miss. With busy days—school, work, activities, and all the little things we juggle—it's easy to miss the small moments that bring joy. But those little moments are often the ones that matter most.

Gratitude gives us a chance to pause, notice, and appreciate. We see it every day in our school community: students helping friends, teachers going the extra mile, parents and parishioners lending a hand, and staff making sure our campus feels safe and welcoming. These every day acts of kindness are what make our community so special.

At home, notice the blessings around you. A simple "thank you," pointing out someone's effort, or reflecting on one good thing from the day can help all of us grow in kindness and gratitude.

To the parishioners of St. Anthony Church, thank you for all the ways you support our children, families and school - often quietly behind the scenes. We notice, and we appreciate you. We are truly blessed to share this journey with you.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe - Gospel Reflection

Readings: 2 Samuel 5:1-3. Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5. Colossians 1:12-20. Luke 23:35-43.

I have a brief recommendation as a prelude to homily preparation for this Solemnity. Before you even begin to pray over the readings for Christ the King, go to a very private, solitary place and remain quiet for several minutes to recite the name slowly and aloud: Our Lord Jesus Christ. Ironically, the ubiquity and familiarity of Christ's name in liturgical ministry and preaching may have drained the sacred potency out of Christ's "name claim" on us as disciples. But that name can never tire us – ever. It is worth repeating the name of Jesus throughout this week under a variety of circumstances to grant the Lord possession of everything we do.

When we do approach the readings for this Solemnity, the best preparation we can make for our preaching is to prayerfully invite Christ into our heart of hearts. As a familiar hymn reminds us: "There let Him subdue all that is not holy, all that is not true" (At the Name of Jesus," based on Philippians 2:10-11). Indeed, this proclamation of Christ's kingship remains at our very core as baptized Christians and priests. The responsorial psalm rings as an invitation to worship the One who invites us to the intimacy of prayerful encounter to lead the liturgical assembly as the worshipful Body of Christ: "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord." Psalm 122 asks the community of faith to acknowledge the priority of God's place in their lives, to understand where Christ has made His dwelling and to make that space our priority. Consider that the Lord leads as a shepherd in this chorus of rejoicing: the Great Shepherd leading one of His shepherds, now one with the Lord in praise and thanksgiving as He teaches His flock.

We come rejoicing, not because of the Lord's coercive, regal power, but as a Servant who "delivered us from the power of darkness," as the Letter to the Colossians says. Although the fulness of God resided in Christ, He made peace "by the blood of His cross." The mocking jabs by rulers of His age proved prophetic: "He saved others. Let Him save Himself if He is the Chosen One, the Christ of God." Yes, He did save others. But His kingship is not for this age, but the age to come. Jesus' fateful dialogue with the "good thief" unfolds the extent of the Lord's compassion and self-gift, which comes from love and remembrance. The kingdom comes from the Lord's desire not to be over His subjects, but to be a Divine Lover who takes refuge in our hearts, which we have opened to Him. This is the new kingdom of Christ the King, where the king serves His people.

"Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation?"

Luke 23:40

Prayer with Scripture

How do I hold my use of power in check for the sake of the people?

Can I take time throughout the week to surrender to the Lord what is rightly His?

How do I model servant leadership when it comes to preaching?

The WISDOM of the SAINTS

365 Days of Inspiration

Each week, we post seven inspirational quotes from various saints for you to meditate and pray upon daily.

NOVEMBER 23 - FASTING

"When a man begins to fast, he straightaway yearns in his mind to enter into conversation with God."

Saint Isaac the Syrian

NOVEMBER 24 - FAITH

"It is good that faith should precede reason, lest we seem to demand reasons from our Lord God in the same way that we might demand them of a man. How unworthy it would be to believe the human testimonies of another, and not believe the utterances of God Himself!"

Saint Ambrose of Milan

NOVEMBER 25 - HOPE

"Those whose hearts are enlarged by confidence in God run swiftly on the path of perfection. They not only run, they fly – because, having placed all their hope in the Lord, they are no longer weak as they once were. They become strong with the strength of God, which is given to all who put their trust in Him."

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

NOVEMBER 26 - PEACE

"Without any doubt, there is a desire in all hearts for peace. But how foolish is he who seeks this peace apart from God. For if God be driven out, justice is banished. Once justice fails, all hope of peace is lost."

Saint Pope Pius X

NOVEMBER 27 - PEACE

"Who except God can give you peace? Has the world ever been able to satisfy the heart?"

Saint Gerard Majella

NOVEMBER 28 - PRAYER

"Prayer is the root, the fountain, the mother of a thousand blessings."

Saint John Chrysostom

NOVEMBER 29 - TRUSTING GOD

"Act and God will act."

Saint Joan of Arc
