Along with prayer, we invite you to take a moment to write a note of appreciation to one or both of our priests. Let Msgr. Terry and Fr. Letters may be dropped off at the parish office. God bless our priests!

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Aloha mai kākou,

It was a tearful goodbye as we bid a fond a hui hou to Samantha Gomes. After 27 years of faithful service to our families and staff, she leaves behind a legacy of dedication and love. Words cannot fully express our gratitude for all she has done for our school. Sam was always our "go-to" for any question, and she responded with unwavering patience and kindness. Students expressed their appreciation with heartfelt, personalized cards, lei, floral bouquets, and countless warm hugs. May God bless her abundantly as she embarks on this new journey.

At the same time, we are grateful to welcome another faithful servant to our school 'ohana. Please join me in welcoming Pikake Pali, SAS Class of 1999, as our new 2nd grade teacher. She is a mother of three beautiful children and her family loves Jesus. She has been a teacher for 15 years in the area of Hawaiian Studies and olelo Hawaii. She is a proud Catholic Hawaiian. We are excited to have her join the St. Anthony School staff.

We also extend our deepest thanks to Pauline Curry, who lovingly cared for our 2nd graders as the long-term substitute. Her dedication and compassion are truly appreciated. Ms. Curry will continue to be a substitute for the grade school.

Lastly, a gentle reminder to please observe the speed limit and follow the arrows while on school property. Children are often crossing the sidewalks, especially after school, and their safety remains our top priority.

Blessings,

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Gospel Reflection

Readings: Amos 8:4-7. Psalm 113:1-2, 4-6, 7-8. 1 Timothy 2:1-8.
Luke 16:1-13.

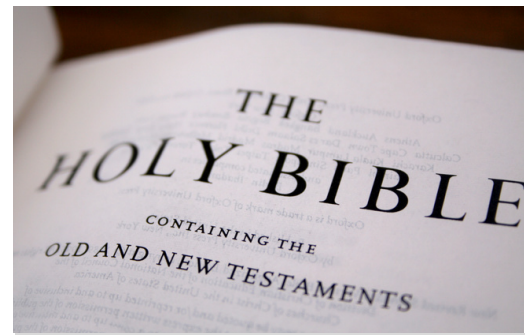

Today's Gospel presents us with one of Jesus' more difficult parables to interpret. We are seemingly not helped too much by the adjacent conversation partners in the Sunday Lectionary. There is a rather furious outpouring of anger from the prophet Amos about God's vengeance on cheats. In the second reading, St. Paul asks for prayers "that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity." We might ask, then, how do we strive for God's justice as well as for peace? And where does the dishonest steward fit in? Jesus calls him dishonest, but he also settles accounts in peace.

It helps to read the parable of the unjust steward with an eye toward how this passage fits into other Lucan material. We know that Luke's concern tends toward the practical, everyday living of the Christian life. This includes the use of money. The Book of Acts shows the early Church figuring out what to do with shared community wealth and its consequences, as we see in the account of Ananias and Sapphira, who hoarded their shekels in secret and came to an unhappy end (Acts 5:1-11).

The parable of the unjust steward begins with "a rich man," as does the parable that follows about the rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31), two teachings with stories about how to deal with wealth. The difference between them is that Jesus intensifies His second story for a different audience. The parable of the dishonest steward is directed at His disciples, but the implied hearers of the parable about the rich man who ignores Lazarus at his gate are the Pharisees, described as lovers of money (Luke 16:14).

I think the dishonest steward, as Jesus suggests, is a child of this world and makes the most of what he has been dealt, similar to Jesus' disciples with their various inclinations and backgrounds. This steward serves as an example for people who must cope with the world's wealth as if they were "shrewd as serpents" (Matthew 10:16). Jesus is not preaching to naive country bumpkins. Instead, prudence becomes the operative virtue; it is a scale that weighs the world in balance. Obviously, Jesus is not praising dishonesty, but commending a quality like prudence, which can help discern proper judgment in an imperfect world. The steward is not consumed by wealth.

Lovers of money seem altogether a different matter because of their higher dishonesty – hypocrisy. At least the dishonest (let's call him shrewd) steward has a future when it comes to learning how to deal with true riches. The hint here is that our steward is able to detach himself from wealth as if it were a game of some sort. That is not true for the religious elite in Jesus' day. For them, Jesus reserves the next parable.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones"

Luke 16:10

Prayer with Scripture

Do I relate to the unjust steward's prudence? How?

How would I account for my parish stewardship in my heart of hearts?

Do I remind my parish that we are to offer prayers for everyone?

The WISDOM of the SAINTS

365 Days of Inspiration

Each week, we post seven inspirational quotes from various saints for you to meditate and pray upon daily.

SEPTEMBER 21 - THE LEAST AMONG US

"When you have pity on the poor, you lend to God. Whoever gives to the least gives to God – a sweet-smelling spiritual sacrifice to Him."

Saint Cyprian of Carthage

SEPTEMBER 22 - EVANGELIZATION

"I have never succeeded when I have spoken with the faintest suspicion of hardness. If one wishes to move the mind, one must be ever on one's guard not to embitter the heart."

Saint Vincent de Paul

SEPTEMBER 23 - SUFFERING

"Do not wince under the hammer that strikes you. Have an eye to the chisel that cuts you and to the hand that shapes you. The skillful and loving Architect may wish to make of you the chief stones of His eternal edifice and the fairest statues in His kingdom. Then let Him do it. He loves you. He knows what He is doing. He has had experience. All His blows are skillful and straight and loving. He never misses, unless you cause Him to by your impatience."

Saint Louis de Montfort

SEPTEMBER 24 - GOD'S WILL

"Never say to God, 'Enough!' Simply say, 'I am ready.'"

Blessed Sebastian Valfre

SEPTEMBER 25 - PRAISE

"The most deadly poison of our times is indifference. And this does happen, although the praise of God should know no limits. Let us strive, therefore, to praise Him to the greatest extent of our powers."

Saint Maximilian Kolbe

SEPTEMBER 26 - ALMSGIVING

"Our prayers become effective through almsgiving. Life is redeemed from dangers by almsgiving. Souls are delivered from death by almsgiving."

Saint Cyprian of Carthage

SEPTEMBER 27 - FAITH

"If your faith were greater, how much more peaceful you would be, even when great trials surround and oppress you."

Saint Paula Frassinetti
