DAY 6 - MORE OF BROOME — Wednesday 25th August, 2027

This morning we spend time wandering the newly revitalized Town Beach which used to be the site of Broome's main jetty, the original Port of Broome until the mid-1970s when a new jetty was constructed at Entrance Point. Since that time the Town Beach precinct has been known to locals as Old Jetty. Located at the top of the walkway down onto this new fishing jetty stands the "9 Zeros – 9 Stories" statues honouring the 1942 Japanese air raid victims. The nine aluminum figures each represent a personal narrative from the event. Facing Roebuck Bay, the memorial captures chaos, loss, and reconciliation from a pivotal moment in Broome's history. Visit one of Broome's historic icons, the Japanese Cemetery to reflect on the diverse multicultural history of Broome as we wander amongst the hundreds of graves, with unique headstones crafted out of coloured beach rocks. We then visit the award-winning microbrewery, Matso's, a true Broome treasure. We enjoy lunch in the laid-back atmosphere. Later this afternoon we visit the Malcolm Douglas Crocodile Park and Animal Refuge. The shop museum showcases an extraordinary display of Malcolm's 40 years spent producing his famous adventure films. We watch the daily crocodile feeding showcasing some of the largest crocodiles on display in Australia.

OVERNIGHT: Oaks Broome Hotel, BROOME ★★★★☆

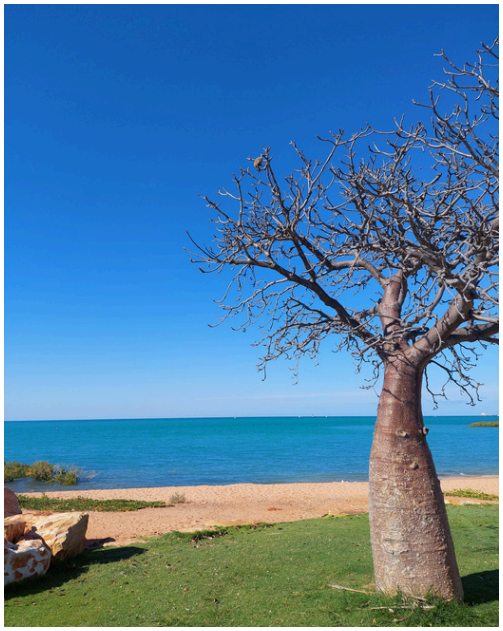

"...The colours and vastness of the Broome landscape, the ancient stories, natural environment and the fusion of different cultures make Broome a place you will want to revisit again and again..."
