MORE OF GIPPSLAND

Lots of adventures await us today as we continue our exploration of Gippsland! We head to Yarram, a small East Gippsland town where muralist and fine artist Heesco Khosnaran has transformed the town into a gallery of murals, reflecting the town's history and people. We have time to view the murals before continuing to the coast to Port Albert. This delightful fishing village was Gippsland's first port, discovered in 1841 by the survivors of the wreck of the steamer 'Clonmel' on the Ninety Mile Beach. Here we visit the Gippsland Regional Maritime Museum for morning tea and time to uncover an extensive collection of historic artefacts and documents. Afterwards a "fish and chips lunch pack" will be enjoyed before we meet a true Gippsland identity at Beloka Kelpies Stud. Paul Macphail has been breeding and training dogs since the early nineties and here you'll get to witness him and his four-legged co-workers in action. From veterans to pups it will be a fun and intriguing afternoon.

From hats to harvesters, pumps to pots, there is something for everyone at this eclectic museum. After lunch, we travel back in time with Port of Sale Heritage Cruise. The scene is set as we board The Rubeena, a classy wooden boat first launched at Lakes Entrance in 1912. Drift back into a different time, when our waterways were our highways and journey from the Port of Sale to the landmark Swing Bridge. Spot birds and wildlife as you cruise and your guide recounts the region's remarkable stories, from its first people the Gunnaikurnai, through early settlement to the present day.
