Frequently Asked Questions

Welcome: O'Shannessy's Quality Tours believes that discovering new destinations is one of life's most profound experiences, where the magic of each place is felt not only through the eyes but also through the heart. Our own tour designers have researched this tour with our O'Shannessys' passengers in mind. Safe destinations with friendly and welcoming 4-5 star hospitality, UNESCO World Heritage sites, breathtaking landscapes and delicious cuisine.

Weather: Singapore in March generally has very warm temperatures, with heavy precipitation. In March, Iceland is still deep in its winter season, with crisp air, lingering snow, and daylight stretching noticeably longer each week. If seeing the northern lights is high on your list, March offers a good balance of dark nights and clearer skies.

Currency: The official currency in Singapore is the Singapore Dollar. The local currency in Iceland is the Icelandic Krona however it is easier and cheaper to simply use your credit card, debit card or travel card. ATM machines are widely available but could incur transaction fees. Check with your local bank about the best card to take with you.

DAY 1 - MELBOURNE TO SINGAPORE

Friday 5th March, 2027

Welcome to our fabulous tour to Iceland and the Northern Lights. But first, we break our long journey with a stopover in fascinating Singapore! After we are collected by our chauffeurs, we are transferred to Melbourne International Airport where we meet our Tour Manager and fellow passengers, ready to board our direct flight to Singapore. On our arrival, we are welcomed by our local English-speaking guide and transferred to our lovely accommodation, conveniently located on the Singapore River. We'll meet up for a light dinner this evening and have an early night to be fresh for our touring tomorrow.

OVERNIGHT: Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel, SINGAPORE ★★★★★

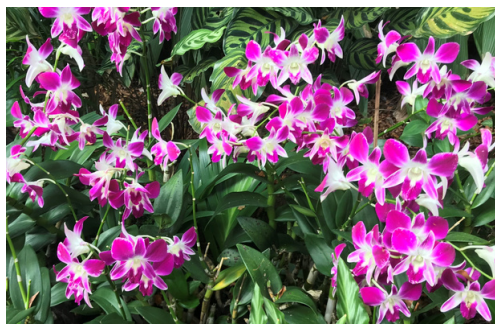

DAY 2 - EXPLORING SINGAPORE

Saturday 6th March, 2027

This morning, we embark on a sightseeing tour of Singapore. We can observe the rich cultural and historical heritage through the sights and sounds of the bustling ethnic enclaves. Along the streets of China Town, Kampong Glam and Little India, religious monuments nestle amidst quaint shop houses. Contrasting with the modern shopping malls, there are serene gardens and sleek skyscrapers. We also visit the Singapore Botanic Gardens and National Orchid Garden. The Botanic Garden is a 156-year-old tropical garden located at the fringe of Singapore's main shopping belt and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Providing a place for 60,000 orchid plants - consisting of 1000 species and more than 2,000 hybrids - are the three hectares of carefully landscaped slopes. We now have time for our lunch break before we hop in one of the bumboats for a cruise along the Singapore River. Commonly known as Twakows and Tongkangs, these hardy little vessels were once extensively used for transport purposes along the Singapore River. Later today, get ready for a wonderful dining experience at Rise Restaurant. Following dinner, we visit the Super Tree Grove where we can see the world from a different perspective on the OBC Skywalk. As night falls, we will be treated to the amazing sound and light show throughout the Super Tree Grove – this is one of the highlights of any visit to Singapore.

DAY 3 - MORE OF SINGAPORE

Sunday 7th March, 2027

We continue our sightseeing this morning with a visit to Gardens by the Bay located at the edge of Marina Reservoir. Spanning a huge area, this award winning horticultural attraction houses over 250,000 rare plants with two unique conservatories being the Flower Dome and Cloud Forest. Returning to our hotel, we have some free time to start packing, freshen up and relax before our next outing - and it is special! This afternoon, we enjoy High Tea at the Raffles Hotel. We head back to our hotel for the last time as we have a guaranteed late check-out at 6pm. After freshening up, we transfer to the airport to connect with our late night flight to London where we connect to our flight to Reykjavik.

DAY 4 - ARRIVE REYKJAVIK

Monday 8th March, 2027

Upon arrival at Keflavik International Airport, we will be met by our tour escort who will accompany us through our Icelandic adventure and transferred to Reykjavik, a scenic drive of approximately 45 minutes. Upon arrival in the city, we can check in to our accommodation and the remainder of the afternoon is at leisure to rest after our journey. This evening, a two-course dinner will be served at the hotel. Early to bed before we explore the charming Icelandic capital of Reykjavik tomorrow!

OVERNIGHT: Reykjavik Hotel Saga by Islands Hotel, REYKJAVIK ★★★★★

After a hot buffet breakfast, we meet our tour escort and begin a morning walking tour of Reykjavik, discovering the highlights of Iceland's vibrant capital. Stroll through colourful streets lined with Nordic architecture and see some of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the striking Hallgrímskirkja Church, whose soaring tower dominates the skyline. Enjoy admission to the church and if you wish, ascend its tower for panoramic views of the city and the surrounding bay. Continue to view the gleaming Sun Voyager sculpture, an ode to Iceland's seafaring spirit, before visiting Perlan, one of Reykjavik's premier attractions. At Perlan, explore the Wonders of Iceland exhibitions, which include an artificial ice cave, interactive displays about glaciers, and the Áróra Northern Lights Show in the planetarium. Step out onto the observation deck for sweeping vistas over Reykjavik and its surrounding natural beauty. We return to our hotel for dinner - but our day isn't over yet. This evening we set out for an unforgettable boat excursion to experience the magic of the Northern Lights. During this cruise, we will sail away from the city lights into the stillness of Faxaflói Bay, where, weather permitting, we may witness the shimmering Aurora Borealis dance across the Arctic sky. A backup plan ensures that even if the lights are elusive, an engaging alternative experience will be provided. Return to your hotel for overnight accommodation.

DAY 6 - THE GOLDEN CIRCLE AND HVERAGERÐI

Wednesday 10th March, 2027

Following breakfast, we depart Reykjavik to begin our exploration of Iceland's famous Golden Circle route. Our first stop is Thingvellir National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the historic site of Iceland's ancient Althing Parliament. Here, the tectonic plates of Europe and North America meet, creating dramatic rifts and geological formations. Continue to the geothermal area of Geysir, where the ground bubbles with energy and the Strokkur geyser erupts regularly. A short drive then brings us to the magnificent Gullfoss Waterfall, cascading in two tiers into a rugged canyon. Travel onward to Friðheimar in Reykholt for a fascinating guided greenhouse visit, where you'll learn how Icelanders use geothermal energy to grow tomatoes year-round in this subarctic climate. Enjoy a light meal of freshly made tomato soup with warm bread amid the greenery. Continue to Hveragerði, known for its geothermal activity and hot springs.

OVERNIGHT: Ork Hotel, HVERAGERÐI ★★★★★

Our journey today begins with a drive to the beautiful Þjórsárdalur Valley, where views of Mount Hekla—one of Iceland’s most famous volcanoes—await, weather permitting. Admire the Þjórsá River, lush vegetation, lava fields, and waterfalls that make this region so picturesque. Continue to Stöng to visit the Þjóðveldisbærinn Stöng, a reconstructed Viking-era farm offering a glimpse into early Icelandic life. Travel south to the iconic Seljalandsfoss Waterfall, where visitors can walk behind the curtain of water for a unique perspective. A short drive further brings us to Skógafoss, another of Iceland’s great waterfalls, tumbling dramatically over ancient sea cliffs. Visit the nearby Skógar Museum for an insight into Iceland’s rural heritage, then continue to Dyrhólaey for sweeping views of the volcanic arch and the famous black sands of Reynisfjara Beach.

Lunch at own expense and arrangements

OVERNIGHT: Dyrhólaey Hotel, DYRHOLAEY ★★★★★

After breakfast, depart Dyrhólaey for Vatnajökull National Park, home to Europe’s largest glacier. At Skaftafell, enjoy a scenic walk of approximately three kilometres (around two hours) to view the beautiful basalt-columned Svartifoss Waterfall and marvel at the nearby Svínafellsjökull Glacier. Continue east to Jökulsárlón Glacier Lagoon, where icebergs drift gracefully in the glacial waters before washing ashore at the glittering Diamond Beach. In the evening, travel onward to Höfn, a charming fishing town renowned for its seafood and views of Vatnajökull.

Lunch at own expense and arrangements

OVERNIGHT: Hofn by Berjaya Iceland Hotels, HOFN ★★★★★

DAY 9 - HÖFN TO EGILSSTAÐIR

Saturday 13th March, 2027

Following breakfast, we travel through Iceland's stunning East Fjords, a region of rugged mountains and tranquil fishing villages. We enjoy lunch at a local restaurant in Breiðdalsvík before continuing on to Egilsstaðir, the main town in East Iceland, where we can experience the relaxing Vök Baths, a geothermal spa floating on Lake Urriðavatn. Apart from the floating geothermal pools with infinity views, there are also two onshore hot pools, a sauna, cold water spray tunnel, tea bar and a restaurant. Be sure to bring your bathers!

OVERNIGHT: Herad by Berjaya Iceland Hotels, EGILSSTAÐIR ★★★★★

DAY 10 - EGILSSTAÐIR TO MÝVATN

Sunday 14th March, 2027

We enjoy a continental breakfast this morning before journeying through the remote Möðrudalsöræfi desert plateau enroute to Múlaþing and the Jökuldalur Valley. We visit the Studlagil Canyon, where turquoise waters contrast with towering basalt columns. Continue to Dettifoss, Europe's most powerful waterfall, before arriving at the geothermal area of Námaskarð Pass to witness bubbling mud pools and steaming vents. Enjoy lunch here before exploring the pseudocraters at Skútustaðagígar, peer into the Grjótagjá lava cave and wander among the dramatic lava formations at Dimmuborgir. Arriving at Lake Mývatn, we check in our hotel surrounded by the region's volcanic scenery.

OVERNIGHT: Fosshotel Mývatn by Islands Hotel, MYVATN ★★★★★

We're in for a bit of fun this morning as we travel to Lake Myvatn for a dogsledding experience. Get up close and personal with the dogs and give them a pat! Next we travel to Goðafoss for lunch and a visit to the “Waterfall of the Gods” before continuing to Akureyri, Iceland's lively northern capital and check in to our hotel. We now have some free time - you may wish to visit the Akureyri Botanical Garden, one of the world's northernmost gardens, which is free entry, or explore the many shops, cafés and harbourfront. We meet again over dinner inhouse and talk about our amazing experiences.

OVERNIGHT: Akureyri by Berjaya Iceland Hotel, AKUREYRI ★★★★★

We depart Akureyri this morning, travelling south along picturesque valleys and farmlands toward the small village of Varmahlíð, located in the heart of the Skagafjörður region, renowned for its strong equestrian traditions. Here, visit a local horse stable to meet the famous Icelandic horses, a breed known for their strength, friendly temperament and unique five gaits. Learn about their history, their importance to Icelandic culture and observe these graceful animals up close in a serene rural setting. Continue through the ever-changing Icelandic landscape, crossing lava fields and passing dramatic mountain ridges as we arrive at Deildartunguhver, Europe's most powerful hot spring. Marvel at the enormous volumes of boiling water gushing from the ground, supplying nearby towns with natural hot water—a striking demonstration of Iceland's geothermal vitality. Nearby, the cascading waters of Hraunfossar create a breathtaking scene as countless rivulets stream gracefully out of a lava field into the Hvítá River. Late afternoon, we arrive at the peaceful coastal town called Borgarnes, set beside a sweeping fjord .

Lunch at own expense and arrangements

OVERNIGHT: Hamar Hotel, BORGARNES ★★★★★

“..Arnarstapi fishing village is a must-visit destination for those seeking a blend of natural beauty and cultural heritage. The eye-catching formations of lava rocks and the stunning gatherings of sea birds will add to the charm of this Icelandic village...”

DAY 13 - SNÆFELLSNES PENINSULA TO REYKJAVIK

Wednesday 17th March, 2027

After breakfast, we travel west to explore the Snæfellsnes Peninsula, often called “Iceland in Miniature” for its diverse landscapes. Enter Snæfellsjökull National Park and stop in Grundarfjörður for magnificent views of Mount Kirkjufell, one of Iceland’s most photographed peaks. Continue to the coastal area of Hellnar to visit Djúpalónssandur beach, a striking black pebble shore, and admire the snow-capped Snæfellsjökull glacier. Visit the quaint fishing village of Arnarstapi before heading north to Stykkishólmur, where an English-speaking guide will take us through the fascinating Shark Museum. Late afternoon, return to Reykjavik and check in again at the hotel before freshening up for our farewell dinner.

Lunch at own expense and arrangements

OVERNIGHT: Hotel Saga by Islands Hotel, REYKJAVIK ★★★★★

After a final hot buffet breakfast, we check out and transfer to Keflavik Airport where we say a sad farewell to our tour escort. We depart for London where we change planes for our return flight to Melbourne.
