

ABC 2027 Sneak Preview

Meet Us by the Missouri!

42nd Annual Blow Molding Conference
October 18-20, 2027

St. Charles Convention Center & Embassy Suites

A New ABC Experience — More Space. More Connections. More Possibilities.

For the first time, ABC is bringing the conference experience to a full-service convention center, giving us room to make the event bigger, better, and more engaging!

Expanded exhibit space — more room for equipment, technology, demonstrations, and networking

All under one roof — the Convention Center is directly connected to the Embassy Suites, making it easy to move between your hotel room, sessions, exhibits, and events

Spacious meeting rooms designed for technical sessions, keynotes, and education.

More Space. More Connections. More Possibilities.

More opportunities to connect with attendees, exhibitors, speakers, and industry leaders;

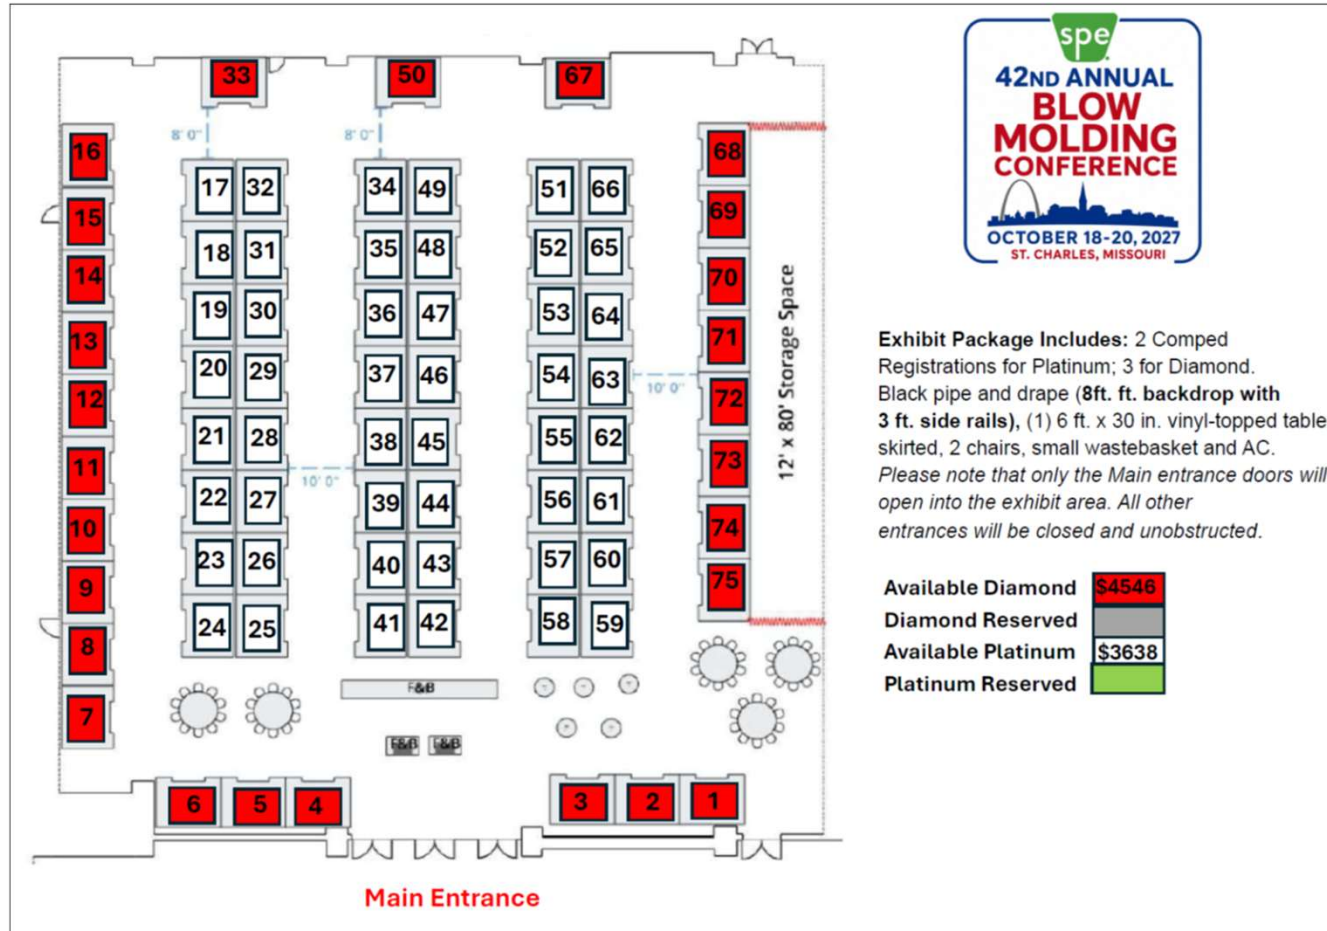

Convenient, comfortable & easy to navigate — everything you need for ABC just steps away

ABC 2027 is growing—and St. Charles gives us the space to make it happen!
