MISSION

Euthus House is a Christ-centered sober living home in Wasilla, Alaska, empowering men recovering from addiction or incarceration to rebuild productive lives through discipleship, mentoring, accountability, and practical re-entry support in a structured, grace-filled environment rooted in God's love and forgiveness.

BAPTISMS

It is with deep joy and profound gratitude that I introduce Chris's powerful testimony. Having walked alongside him through the challenges of re-entry at Euthus House, I've witnessed God's transformative grace at work in his life—turning brokenness into beautiful redemption. It was my humble privilege to baptize him, publicly celebrating his new life in Christ. (Bob)

Chris's Testimony:

When I was preparing for release from prison, I had nowhere to go—returning home wasn't an option, and it would have been a rough start. I believe God orchestrated my arrival at Euthus House; everything aligned so perfectly that I had no doubts it was His plan. I desperately needed the guidance and support here, and it has been an incredible blessing. I was baptized on December 7, 2025, at Wasilla Bible Church, publicly declaring my faith in Jesus Christ—the Messiah who died for my sins and rose again.

Looking back, I see God's hand protecting me throughout my life, often sparing me from far worse outcomes. My arrest and incarceration hit at just the right moment, shaking me awake to my lack of control and the disaster my path was heading toward. These lessons have shown me that God alone is truly dependable—without Him, I am lost.

Ian's Testimony:

In 2017, I was arrested in Kodiak and sentenced to three years in prison. During that time, though I didn't fully recognize it then, I experienced a complete surrender to Christ. My original plan was to return to Kodiak upon release, but God had a different path for me—He led me to Euthus House. Here, I was provided with every resource I needed to build stability: structure, mentoring, accountability, and practical support for reentry. Most importantly, Christ is at the center of everything at Euthus House, and that has made all the difference in my transformation. I am deeply grateful to my mentors and the board members for allowing God to use them in this vital ministry. Thank you for being part of the work that changes lives through His grace.

WELCOME OUR NEW BOARD MEMBER

We are thrilled to welcome Dale Ohler as our newest board member at Euthus House. A former resident who spent just over four years in our program, Dale not only flourished but truly thrived—securing steady work as a journeyman electrician and purchasing two homes while building a stable, productive life rooted in faith and hard work. Today, he remains deeply connected to the house, actively mentoring current residents, offering invaluable advice from the unique perspective of someone who has walked the path himself, and contributing in countless other ways to strengthen our ministry. Dale's journey from resident to leader is a powerful testimony to God's transforming grace, and we're honored to have his wisdom and heart guiding us forward.

DINNER: THE NEW APPETIZER FOR SCRIPTURE

At Euthus House, Tuesday nights have officially become the highlight of the week ever since we started pairing Bible study with dinner. Each apartment rotates the dinner duty, so one week we're treated to a five-star spread of homemade chili and cornbread that has us all praising the Lord (and the chef), and the next week we're politely chewing through "Chef's Surprise"—a mysterious casserole that appears to have been inspired by equal parts faith, leftovers, and a dare. Either way, the food brings us together, the laughs keep us honest, and by the time we crack open the Word, we're already reminded that God's grace is big enough to cover both our sins and our questionable kitchen experiments.

MONTHLY BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

In the whirlwind of Euthus House life—shuttling brothers to meetings, chasing down ride schedules, making endless copies, and juggling a dozen other “urgent” needs—our monthly birthday celebrations are like hitting the pause button on chaos and pressing play on joy. Once a month we ditch the clipboard for cake, gather around the table, eat a real dinner without one eye on the clock, and just celebrate our brothers. No agenda, no to-do list—just laughter, bad singing, maybe a goofy story or two, and a reminder that amid all the logistics, God’s still in the business of marking another year of life transformed. It’s proof that sometimes the most important ministry is simply showing up with forks and smiles. Thank you Kim & kids, Karis, Ginny, and Deb who make this all happen.

TAKING CARE OF OUR #2 PRIORITIES

Euthus House recently learned a valuable life lesson: sometimes “character-building” doesn’t come from workshops or group meetings—it comes from a $30,000 septic system replacement.

What began as a perfectly normal week quickly turned into an all-hands-on-deck infrastructure adventure. Experts were summoned, holes were dug, terms like lateral lines and tank capacity were thrown around with alarming confidence, and suddenly everyone had a crash course in why modern plumbing deserves daily gratitude.

The good news? In a feat of coordination that deserves its own commemorative plaque, the entire system was replaced in just a couple of days. No lingering chaos, no extended disruption—just swift action, deep breaths, and a lighter bank account.

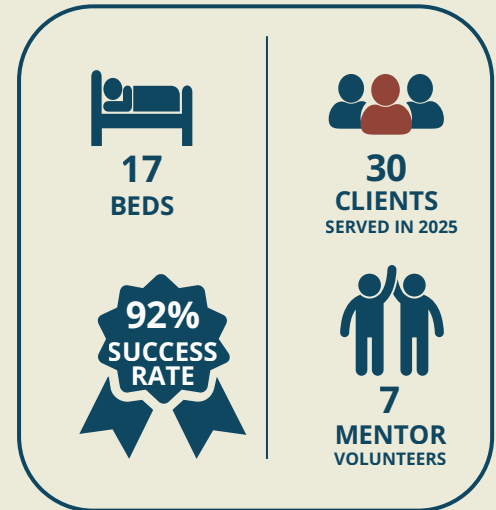

CAPTIAL CAMPAIGN

Euthus House is bursting at the seams. We have 17 beds filled and are still turning away men every week—men fresh out of incarceration or substance abuse treatment. Men desperate for the structured, Christ-centered reentry support that could change their lives forever. We simply don't have the beds, the space, or the resources to say "yes" to everyone God brings to our door. That's why we are launching our capital campaign: to pay off our current facility and pursue building a new facility, adding more rooms, essential systems, and opening our doors wider. Your partnership will help us reach more brothers in need, giving them the discipleship, mentoring, accountability, and the hope they need to rebuild productive, faith-filled lives. Every gift moves us closer to turning "no room" into "welcome home."

Our 92% success rate for men who complete our program demonstrates the power of combining Christ-centered living with real-world preparation. Euthus House is one of the few programs in Alaska making significant headway in breaking cycles of addiction and recidivism.

Markers for success include:

- Completion of the program
- No re-incarceration
- Stable housing
- Stable employment
- Maintaining sobriety

-OUR GOALS-

SECURE OUR FACILITY AND EXPAND

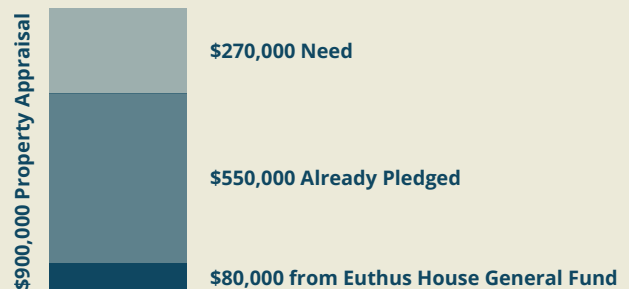

To continue and grow this life-changing work, we must own our current facility outright. Our property is appraised at $900,000. Money from our general fund and finances already pledged for this project cover 80% of the need. Raising the remaining $270,000 will fully pay off the property, freeing resources for our next vision: building an on-site additional facility to serve more men and deepen our impact in the Mat-Su community.

-PARTNERSHIPS-

PEOPLE WILLING TO JOIN US

Ways you can get involved include:

- Praying and spreading the word
- Donations from individuals, churches, or organizations
- Grants or matching funds
- Gifts-in-kind (Contact us for ideas)
- Mentors willing to walk alongside men rebuilding their lives.

TOGETHER, WE CAN EXPAND THIS PROVEN MINISTRY AND REACH MORE MEN FOR CHRIST.

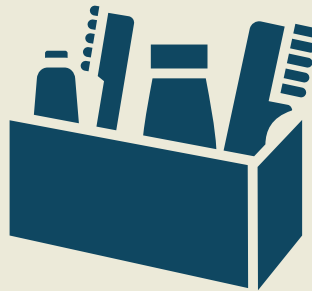

WELCOME KITS

When men step through our doors, whether straight from prison, treatment, or another chapter of struggle, they often arrive with little more than the clothes on their back and hope in their heart. We know that first step into freedom can feel overwhelming, so we want to make their transition as smooth, stress-free, and welcoming as possible. That's why we're putting together simple WELCOME KITS filled with essential personal care and comfort items to help them feel seen, cared for, and ready to begin a new chapter with dignity and peace.

These bags include basics like toiletries, comfortable socks, underwear, a few hygiene essentials, and small comforts that make their space feel more like home right away. Your support in helping us stock these kits means every new brother starts feeling the love and grace of this community from day one.
