Our Mission

"To follow Jesus by sharing God's unconditional love as the Spirit empowers us."

Our Vision

We will follow Jesus...

- By being a local Christian church within the United Church of Canada; a community anchor for spiritual exploration and growth where life, worship, knowledge, service and song all contribute to our larger story.
- By welcoming and involving people of diverse faith, ethnicities, abilities, ages and stages of life, economic situations, sexual orientation and gender identities.
- By caring for all members with compassion, empathy and joy.
- By acts of service, reaching out to engage and support our community, the country and the world.
- By building bridges within our community, as a congregation recognizing the variety of religions and spiritualities in the most diverse city in the world.
- By using our facilities for religious, social, cultural, educational, or other programs that reflect our values.

Family Love Forever

by .PD. is Here

Have u ever thought actually
What it would be like,
without a family.

Family is the only one,
Where one experiences best of fun.

Family is an elegant necklace,
Whose bond may appear broken

But deep inside,
their hearts are still one.

When the unwanted sorrows
seem longer than a mile,
Your dear old family
makes you smile.

When because of a mistake
no event

Works out for your sake.

When life refuses to mend
There comes a sharp bend,
Family gives necessary amends,
To the family all worries
can be sent.

In a fraction of time,
Your sorrows will leave
It may sound absurd
But you've got to believe.

Wherever you may be,
You belong to the pack.
And to them you can always go back.

The Seven Steps of Morning

From Out of the Ordinary by Joyce Rupp

This is a morning prayer to get your day started. Be in touch with your own emotional and spiritual space when you begin this. You may find that there are days when all seven words are the same, e.g., "patience" would be said and repeated for all of the seven steps. One small step is taken for each of the seven words. After the word is said, stay for one or two minutes with the word. Then the next step is taken and the word is said, etc.

My first step is that of gratitude...for the gift of another fresh day of life.

My second step is that of love...for the Holy One and for all of my dear ones.

My third step is that of hope...for the possibility of growth in each moment.

My fourth step is that of compassion...for all of creation and our deep connection.

My fifth step is that of generosity...for all that shall be asked of me this day.

My sixth step is that of laughter...for the joys that will refresh my heart.

My seventh step is that of patience...for the difficult challenges that may arise.

Some other qualities that might be inserted in place of these seven: trust, non-judgment, recovery, strength, kindness, faith, hope, healing, etc.

Giver of Life, awaken my entire being so that I can enter this day with the eagerness of one who sees beauty and truth strewn through every part of life. Deepen my bond with you and strengthen my peace.

Amen.

"Mountaintop Experiences?"

This week in Matthew's Gospel we're given quite a scene - dazzling light, radiant clothing, a voice from the cloud, and even Moses and Elijah showing up. It's dramatic and overwhelming - exactly the kind of moment people imagined when they thought about the Messiah finally arriving. No wonder Peter wants to stay right there on the mountaintop. His instinct is basically, "Let's put up some tents and settle in - this must be it!"

And honestly, who can blame him? Faced with something holy and beyond explanation, Peter responds in a very human way. He tries to organize it, contain it, make it manageable. He works with what he knows and what he expects. In that sense, Peter feels very familiar - he reacts the way most of us probably would.

Even though Peter has been walking closely with Jesus and witnessing incredible things, he's still trying to understand where all this is heading and how it will unfold. He has a picture in his mind of what the Messiah should be - but God's plan looks different. We may have the benefit of scripture and hindsight, yet we still fall into the same pattern at times - expecting God to work within our assumptions rather than being surprised by something bigger.

Join us this Lent for Kitchen Conversations with the Moderator

Featuring guests from across the church, the six-part video series exploring food, faith, and community debuts Shrove Tuesday, February 17

Food is never just food. In cooking a beloved recipe for a friend or a stranger, we're inviting them to share in our culture and traditions - and telling them that they belong. Around a table, barriers fall and stories flow, reminding us that God meets us in ordinary moments of sharing bread and conversation.

In this spirit, coming this Lent we're excited to announce Kitchen Conversations with the Moderator, a new six-part video series exploring food, faith, and the power of invitation, hosted by the Right Rev. Dr. Kimberly Heath.

Drawing inspiration and recipes from the United Church's Lenten devotional, Bless Break Share: Recipes for Faithful Living, we'll be cooking with guests from across the church, including book contributors, United Church youth, and the Moderator's own family.

The series debuts with a Shrove Tuesday pancake feast in the Moderator's home kitchen on February 17, with new episodes following each Sunday throughout Lent, and concludes with a special Easter message from the Moderator.

CLICK on the arrow for an introduction

These spirit-filled conversations will invite you each week to reflect on how food can nourish both body and soul, and how in joining around the table, we connect to something deeper than ourselves.

Along with the videos, we'll be sharing downloadable recipe cards for the dishes featured, pulled from Bless Break Share. Have a story to share? Send your reflections on food and faith, or a photo of your take on one of our Kitchen Conversations dishes, to

kitchenconversations@united-church.ca

Order Bless Break Share and a matching mug and apron online today, and stay tuned for the first episode coming to our website and YouTube channel on February 17.

Want to dig deeper into Bless Break Share? You can also join Rev. Dr. Christine Jerrett for a six-week online Lenten study of the devotional on CHURCHx, beginning February 24. Signing up gets you a discount code for 15% off your purchase of Bless Break Share. 20% discounts are also available on bulk orders of the book.

Join us as we embody the gospel of welcome, and continue to create A Place at the Table for all.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Fairclough Dismantles Discriminatory Policy

During her term as Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, Ellen Fairclough oversaw improvements to the Canadian Immigration Service, but her most significant accomplishment was the radical reform of the government's "White Canada" immigration policy. Regulations tabled in 1962 helped to eliminate racial discrimination in Canada's immigration policy.

West Indian Immigration

Following the Immigration Act of 1962 and 1967 reforms, about 64,000 West Indians came to Canada. Canadians of Caribbean origin belong to one of the largest non-European ethnic groups in Canada. In the 2021 census, 774,500 Canadians reported that they originated from the Caribbean, and the overwhelming majority of these people have immigrated to Canada since the 1970s.

Toronto's Caribana Festival Founded, July 28, 1967

Approximately two-thirds of Canada's West Indian population resides in the greater Toronto area. On 28 July 1967, ten Torontonians with a common West Indian heritage founded the Caribana cultural festival to display their rich cultural traditions. The Caribana festival continues to promote cultural pride, mutual respect and social unity.

St. Matthew Passion

Bach's St. Matthew Passion is a monumental work of drama, devotion, and unparalleled musical genius. With its soul-stirring arias, intricately woven chorales, and emotionally charged narrative, this spiritual masterpiece remains one of the greatest choral works ever written. Under the baton of Jean-Sébastien Vallée, the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, along with exceptional soloists and instrumentalists, brings Bach's timeless music to life in a profoundly iconic performance.

I have spent many hours on this profound choral work, just this week. Three and a half hours of German for non-German speakers is quite a challenge, and Bach's music is never simple. I am getting there, believe it or not! Now what we will need is an audience to enjoy it. I must say, even though I have heard the Passion of Jesus story a zillion times in my church-going life, hearing it sung with the passion and *profundity that only Bach can add, was a very moving experience. I invite you to join us. Koerner Hall, with its fabulous acoustics and dramatic design, is the ideal place in Toronto for the performance. The story I am sharing has the link to our website. # Minutes for Mission

SUPPORT THAT GROWS WITH FAMILIES

Becoming a parent or guardian is a life-changing, complex experience that doesn't have a one-size-fits-all answer. As kids, we looked to adults for guidance as we navigated the world with fresh eyes. Now, as adults, we recognize that we're still figuring things out as we go, and there's always an opportunity to grow our skills and minds.

In London, Ontario, Mission and Service partners with the London Community Chaplaincy as they respond to parents and guardians who want to build a network of support, share the parenting journey, and develop new skills as they navigate raising children in a low-income setting. Together, these parents are working hard to build a positive future for their children and families.

Credit: London Community Chaplaincy

Each week, London Community Chaplaincy provides a welcoming and safe social setting for adults to connect and grow as parents. Not only do they learn how to guide a child through critical stages of development, but also how to navigate being a parent or guardian while managing financial stress, food insecurity, housing complications, and more. Gathering with other adults in a similar situation allows participants to share their struggles and triumphs, further building a sense of community.

Your gifts to Mission and Service support partnerships like the London Community Chaplaincy as they help empower parents along the parenting journey. Thank you.

Family Day

By Rajasree Datta

Family Day is a special occasion celebrated in many countries, including Canada, to honour the importance of family and close relationships. It's a day dedicated to spending quality time with loved ones, reflecting on the significance of familial bonds, and recognizing the role family plays in our lives. Celebrated on different dates in different regions, Family Day serves as a reminder to appreciate and nurture the connections that give us support, love, and a sense of belonging.

Aside from the emotional connections, Family Day also highlights the value of traditions and cultural heritage. Families often pass down customs, stories, and values from generation to generation, preserving family history and ensuring that future generations understand their roots.

This creates a deep sense of continuity, helping individuals feel connected to something larger than themselves.

While some people may celebrate Family Day with big gatherings, others may prefer a quiet day spent in their own homes. No matter how it is observed, the core message remains the same: family is an irreplaceable source of love, care, and support. Family Day is a time to reflect on and celebrate the love and unity within families. It reminds us to appreciate the people who have shaped our lives and to foster stronger connections with those we care about. In a world that often prioritizes individual success, it's not just about the nuclear family - on Family Day, extended family members such as grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins also play an important role in the celebrations. Family Day serves as a beautiful reminder that our families are the foundation on which we build our lives.
