"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." [Jn. 13:34]

As I have loved you," this is the hard part for stewards – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know, or someone that doesn't look like you.

Thank you for your support & generosity!

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Fifth Sunday of Easter –

In today’s gospel, Jesus gives us a new commandment --- “to love one another as He has loved us.” This love is not based on convenience or feeling, but on self-giving and sacrifice. It’s the kind of love that transforms hearts and renews communities. When we choose to love like Christ, even in small ways, we become vessels of His grace, healing, and hope. Let us ask for the courage to love more deeply each day.

Quinto Domingo de Pascua –

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos da un mandamiento nuevo: “Que nos amemos unos a otros como Él nos ha amado”. Este amor no se basa en la conveniencia o el sentimiento, sino en la entregayel sacrificio. Es un amor que transforma corazones y renueva comunidades. Cuando elegimos amar como Cristo, incluso en lo pequeño, nos convertimos en instrumentos de su gracia, sanación y esperanza. Pidamos valor para amar más cada día

The best prayer Catholics have is the Mass... which is the greatest gift of all.

Easter is not just one day, but a season that continues for 50 days which ends on the great Feast of Pentecost.
