GOSPEL READING

At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Matthew 22:21)

Jesús les replicó: "Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César, y a Dios lo que corresponde a Dios." (Mateo 22:21)

OUR MISSION

St. Mary Parish in Escondido, CA, welcomes everyone to enter God's Covenant of love, forgiveness and healing and, in turn, follow His Will manifested in Revelation [Scripture (The Bible), His life (The Sacraments) and Apostolic Tradition (The Church)]. As such, our Parish provides followers of Jesus Christ, who alone is Savior, the practice of Roman Catholicism witnessing in faith the one true God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Initiated into the life of God through grace by baptism, we are brothers and sisters in the mystical body of Christ, united in professing the faith in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church established by Jesus and steadfast in our pursuit to know, love and serve God.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In the Gospel, Jesus presents the riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone-including Caesar-belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

En el Evangelio, Jesús plantea una incógnita para profundizar en el tema de los impuestos y la humanidad. Una moneda romana lleva la imagen del César, por lo que le pertenece. Por lo tanto, tiene derecho a reclamarla. Justo. Pero ¿qué pertenece a Dios? ¿Qué lleva su imagen? Todo ser humano. Dios se ha impreso en cada persona. Lo que significa que todos, incluido el César, le pertenecen por completo. Jesús, que es la imagen perfecta de Dios, ha venido para atraer a todos de vuelta a Él.

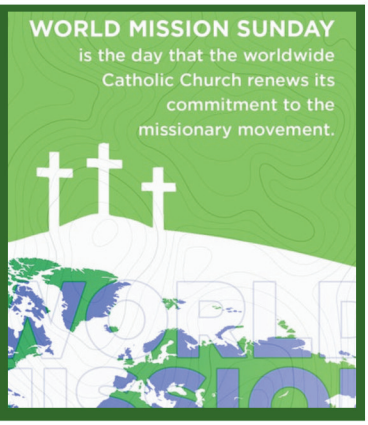

Podemos sentir la tentación de imaginar que nuestras vidas se componen de "cosas para Dios" y "cosas que no son para Dios". La buena noticia es que tal división no es posible, porque todo en la vida es un regalo de Dios para nosotros. Por lo tanto, todo está destinado a ser puesto al servicio del reino de Dios. Él ama todo lo que ha creado. Tenemos el privilegio de devolvérselo todo.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday is the annual global celebration within the Catholic Church dedicated to the vital work of the missions. It is a worldwide day of collection and prayer, both of which support the Propagation of the Faith, especially in developing faith communities. Funds collected on this day help build and sustain churches, fund schools, orphanages, and medical clinics, and more. By offering our prayers and financial generosity, we unite as one global family to ensure that the Gospel message and the love of Christ reach every corner of the earth.

DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones es la celebración anual de la Iglesia Católica dedicada a la vital labor de las misiones. Es un día mundial de colecta y oración, ambas fundamentales para la propagación de la fe, especialmente en las comunidades de fe en desarrollo. Los fondos recaudados en este día ayudan a construir y mantener iglesias, financiar escuelas, orfanatos, clínicas médicas y mucho más. Al ofrecer nuestras oraciones y generosidad económica, nos unimos como una sola familia global para asegurar que el mensaje del Evangelio y el amor de Cristo lleguen a todos los rincones de la tierra.

EUCHARIST

A few months ago, a consecrated Host was discovered with an unusual appearance, raising the possibility of a Eucharistic miracle. Following an examination and consultation with Bishop Michael Pham and professionals, it was determined that the unusual appearance was caused by mold, not a physical miracle.

"It was everyone's hope that a physical manifestation had occurred, as in many other instances throughout history and in the world, but even though that was not this case, our faith was nonetheless strengthened and confirmed."
— Fr. Scott Herrera, Pastor

As Catholics, we believe that Jesus Christ is truly present —Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—in the Holy Eucharist, even in the smallest fragment (CCC 1374, 1377). His presence remains as long as the Eucharistic species remain.

For this reason, the Church requires that consecrated Hosts be treated with the utmost reverence (CCC 1378, 1418). If a Host cannot be consumed, it must never be discarded in the trash or an ordinary sink. Instead, it may be reverently dissolved in water until the appearance of bread is gone, and the water is then poured into the sacrarium or appropriately onto the earth.

Although this was not a confirmed Eucharistic miracle, our faith remains unchanged. The greatest miracle takes place at every Holy Mass, when bread and wine become the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ.

May this experience deepen our faith, reverence, and love for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

EUCARISTÍA

Hace unos meses, se descubrió una Hostia consagrada con un aspecto inusual, lo que planteó la posibilidad de un milagro Eucarístico. Tras un examen y consultas con el obispo Michael Pham y diversos profesionales, se determinó que dicha apariencia inusual se debía a la presencia de moho, y no a un milagro físico.

"Todos esperábamos que hubiera ocurrido una manifestación física, como ha sucedido en muchos otros casos a lo largo de la historia y en todo el mundo; sin embargo, aunque no fue así en esta ocasión, nuestra fe se vio igualmente fortalecida y confirmada."
— P. Scott Herrera, Párroco

Como Católicos, creemos que Jesucristo está verdaderamente presente —en Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad— en la Sagrada Eucaristía, incluso en el fragmento más pequeño (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica 1374, 1377). Su presencia perdura mientras subsistan las especies Eucarísticas.

Por esta razón, la Iglesia exige que las Hostias consagradas sean tratadas con la máxima reverencia (CIC 1378, 1418). Si una Hostia no puede ser consumida, jamás debe desecharse en la basura ni en un desagüe común. En su lugar, puede disolverse reverentemente en agua hasta que desaparezca la apariencia de pan; posteriormente, el agua se vierte en el sacrarium o directamente en la tierra, de manera apropiada.

Aunque este caso no resultó ser un milagro Eucarístico, confirmado nuestra fe permanece inalterable. El milagro más grande tiene lugar en cada Santa Misa, cuando el pan y el vino se transforman en el Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad de Jesucristo.

Que esta experiencia profundice nuestra fe, reverencia y amor hacia Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento.
