

Embossing

OCM can emboss bare and painted coils, providing a deep texture in one of our 4 patterns: Stucco, Cedar, Driftwood, or Leather. The embossing process involves passing the coil through heavy-duty engraved rollers that create a 3-dimensional impression in the metal without damaging the paint. This allows you to utilize the durability of metal while achieving the texture of other materials, such as wood and stucco.

Stucco

Cedar

Driftwood

Leather Emboss

