

Photography and Filming Policy Statement

Use of photographs or recorded images of children and young people Bodens Performing Arts may want to take photographs or record the activities undertaken by the young people. Bodens Performing Arts commits to ensure that all publications and media represent participants appropriately and with due respect. A photograph or image of a child or young person will not be published if consent has been objected to at the time of enrolment or thereafter. Personal information about the individual will not accompany the image. Bodens Performing Arts' receives a blanket permission to record our events through film and photography. This permission restricts use for Bodens Performing Arts' own promotional use, eg publications and website. Individuals and organisations commissioned by us or working in partnership with us cannot use film and photography without the consent of the participating groups. Where possible and appropriate Bodens Performing Arts gets explicit consent when people register for an event directly. Where a youth theatre leader books for an event on behalf of a young people, Bodens Performing Arts gets the leader to sign to say they are responsible for getting explicit, individual consent. Bodens Performing Arts' states at events "Bodens Performing Arts will be taking photographs and video shots of activities and performances for use within Bodens Performing Arts photographic library, printed Bodens Performing Arts' publications, publicity and on the Bodens Performing Arts' website, to support and promote the work of the Company. If you or your parents have any objections to this please let us know so that we can identify anyone who does not wish us to use their image. Otherwise it will be assumed that consent has been given. Bodens Performing Arts' websites will be carefully monitored to eliminate the use of inappropriate images or improper text.

Last updated	Next review	Person responsible
August 2025	August 2026	KM