RHODOID

A line manufactured entirely from high-quality plant-based materials, crafted by hand, finished and polished by hand, for a unique and refined design. The rounded teeth provide a beneficial massage to the scalp, improving microcirculation and preventing damage to the delicate structure of the hair. The hairbrushes with natural bristles are indicated for fine hair and extensions.

ROYAL

Combs and brushes are made from ash wood from European responsibly managed sources, with eco-friendly dyes that enhance the natural beauty of the wood. Finished by hand, the perfectly rounded pins do not damage the hair. They are antistatic, lightweight and easy to handle. The soft and natural rubber massages the scalp, reactivating microcirculation and improving hair health and beauty.

GEL

Soft colours, luminous transparencies and a contemporary design bring to life a collection of combs and brushes that combines aesthetics and functionality. The semi-transparent pastel shades create a modern, refined "gel" effect, designed for those who like to stand out — even in their everyday professional tools. Lightweight, easy to handle and durable, they offer comfort in use and reliable performance.
