Our Chosen Charity

KIWANIS ROSE FLOAT CLUB

For over 100 years, the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade has been a New Year's Day tradition enjoyed by millions of people around the world, and this audience continues to grow over network television and live streams. Starting in the 1920s, and consistently since the 1960's, Kiwanis International has been represented on the streets of Pasadena with beautifully decorated floats that have shared the Kiwanis story and mission to be a meaningful partner with the communities where our members live.

Today, the Kiwanis Rose Float Project is about much more than the parade. As one of the largest community service projects in all of Kiwanis International, the project coordinates over 36,000 volunteer hours from thousands of people, most of whom are high school and college students from Southern California, but some of whom come from across the country to participate in this memorable and rewarding experience. Kiwanians—and our friends, family, and youth service leadership programs—contribute to as many as 1/3 of all the floats that appear in the parade each year.

By supporting this project through participation in one of our fundraising events, or by direct donations of your time, talent, and treasure, you are helping to ensure that the Kiwanis Rose Float Project will be around for years to come. Thank you for helping us improve the lives of children around the world by increasing the visibility of this iconic and rewarding project!
