PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the graduates of 1990; they start the last decade of the twentieth century. This year's class is full of students who get things done in a quiet, businesslike, way. The student council, yearbook and other major activities have been in competent hands.

The school is having a good year. More and more schools in the province are either copying or taking a serious look at the semester system. Parents have supported the contribution to student activities rather than have students go selling chocolate bars, peanuts, ornaments, etc. Another first for L.H.S.! The student council has kept its promise to revitalize intramurals for grades 6, 7, 8 and 9. A year's program has been organized with huge support from the younger students.

The staff at L.H.S. wish the graduates good luck. The school will always be here for help.

R. L. LaMorre

VICE-PRINCIPAL

My second year here at our school tends to be more settled. I know a little more of what to expect of myself and our students.

Our intramurals, for grades six to nine introduced this year, are enjoyed by many of the students.

Our tutorial system is in full swing where teachers give students, in special subject areas, extra help.

We have a grade six elementary basketball team this year participating in the Lunenburg County elementary league.

These three happenings in 1989-90 are just a small slice of the cake of good things here at our Lunenburg Jr.-Sr. High School. I'm glad to be a part of these new thrusts making our school a better place in which to learn.

TO THE GRADS OF '90

Being a proud student of the Graduating Class of 1990, I've experienced many changes along the way. The semester system was introduced during our senior years and since the beginning many friends have joined our class. Combined co-operation and kindness have enabled us to adjust easily to these changes enhancing the characteristics of this unique family of students.

These last eight years at LHS have taken us down an unpredictable path that shines brightly at the end. It is here we say farewell but with the thought that we will meet again.

Then, we will venture onto another changing path but we will have our friends from the beginning for encouragement. The future holds much for this class and I'm sure everyone of us will comfortably succeed in it.

I wish all the best in the future for my fellow grads and thanks for the good times.

GRADUATES

FIRST SEMESTER GRADS

Nils Harold Willem Aberson

"Nils"

Nils, a newly imported member of our class, was born in Heesen, West Germany, but lives in Staphurst, Holland. He joined us this year through a student exchange program. This year, Nils was a key member of the senior boys soccer team achieving a record of the second highest number of goals in league history. Next year Nils plans to attend university to take marketing and after that he wants to spend some time in France perfecting his French accent and do some travelling.

"If it ain't Dutch, it ain't much!"

I, NHWA, being of insane mind and imported body, leave to Chris VandenBroeck (CVDB) a bag of Dutch licorice, to JVDB a whoopee cushion, and to Jason Anderson new cleats.

Jason Scott Anderson

"Hurricane"

Jason has lived in Blue Rocks all his life and attended PVEC until he joined us this year. Jason was part of the soccer, volleyball, and basketball teams. In his spare time, Jason likes to arm wrestle and run. His future plans are to become an oceanographer or a marine biologist.

"Not drugs in particular; but drugs in general. They're not good for you; like a vitamin or a mineral. They come in liquid, leaf, powder, pills and blocks. They put you six feet under, on your back, in a box. So say "NO"!

I, JSA, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my teachers my bad attitude, and all my friends a lot of excellent memories.

Steven Robert Black

"Stephen"

Stephen has been with us since our first days at school. This year Stephen was the treasurer of the student council and the business manager of The Seagull. He was also a canteen worker, prefect, and a member of the grad dance committee. Next year Stephen plans to go into commerce or pharmacy.

How will I laugh tomorrow, when I can't even smile today!

I, SRB, being of partially oversized body and overused mind, leave to my brother, Richard, my fan club (Ha! Ha!) and my Triumph collection. To Chris vandenBroeck, I leave the thought that maybe some day Keith will stop complaining and we will stop making fun of the Cult.

Kevin Leonard Chisholm

"Chiz"

One of the more unusual members of our class, Kevin was born in Sydney, Cape Breton, but moved here at the age of two weeks. This year Kevin was a member of the soccer, hockey, basketball, volleyball, badminton, and softball teams. Chiz was also head photographer for The Seagull, co-head of Winter Carnival and head prefect as well as being a canteen worker and member of the senior and jazz bands. In his spare time Kevin can be found working at Big Red's or spending time with a certain blonde.

I, K.L.C., being of overworked body and innocent mind, leave to CVDB the ability to get in trouble during band because Jason can't. To T.L. the ability to break a leg or 2. To AMO, I leave my job if he wants it. To T.L.C. I leave a spot on the warf; to Shawn I leave an unlit cigarette. To the teachers I leave relief that you will not have to read my writing again; also, I am the last of the Chisholm clan. To K.S. I leave $1.75. To J.P. I leave the ability to do all his homework. To Jackie-Lee, I leave my pack of gum, a 5 x 7 and a key. Finally, to my fellow graduates "thanks" for you have given me memories that will last a lifetime.

Rachel Anne Delaquis

"Rach"

Rachel, one of our foreign imports, was born in Germany but moved to Canada when she was a year old and came to LHS in grade 7. Rach was busy this year being involved in soccer, volleyball, badminton, the canteen committee, prefect and head of the ski club. Next year Rachel plans to take a hospitality course or go into nursing and do some travelling. C-ya, Rach!

"Graduation is only a plateau - the summit awaits - keep climbing!"

I, RAD, being of bizarre mind and hyperactive body, leave to Anthony, my locker as it's the best and "you've got the looks!" To Jackie and Angela, I leave the thought that there's not a long way to go. I would like to thank my closest friends: Jennifer, Rebecca, Sherri, De Anne, Ellie, George, and Jason for making these last years so memorable! I won't forget you guys! To the teachers, I leave! Thanks for everything! Hey George, Boss, I made it! C-ya!!!

Keith George Dodge

"Dodge"

Keith, an integral part of the graduating class and the school, has been with us since grade primary. Keith had the prestigious position of being the president of the student council this year. As well, he was involved in soccer, badminton, guitar club, and is a prefect. Keith's future plan is to become the next Eric Clapton.

"To live is to risk,
To risk is to take action
To take action is to lead." John Gray

I, KGD, being of musical mind and rounded body pass down to C.V.D.B. the task of teaching LHS what good music really is. I also leave Chris the task of mastering the "REDMOND CALL". I leave Mr. Jewers the story of how I smashed my dad's car door for his driver education class. I remind the teachers that I am the last of the Dodges. Many fond memories have been gathered throughout my treasured years at LHS - my hat is off to all who have contributed. Thanks!

Eleanor Jane Hunt

"Ellie"

Ellie popped back and forth between Lunenburg and Newfoundland and even attended Centre for 2 years before finally joining us permanently in grade 7. This year Ellie was head prefect and head of the grad dance committee. She was also a member of the canteen and Christmas dance committees and took driver education. Ellie spends a lot of her spare time working at Harbour View Haven.

"Never give up on a dream, for if a dream dies, life would be like a bird with a broken wing that cannot fly."

I, E.J.H., being of sound mind and body, leave to the teachers of LHS the thought that I may be the first but I am not the last. I have two younger brothers on their way: Andy and Shawn, who are not easy to tame. To my close friends (you know who you are) best of luck in your future. Lastly, to LHS, thanks for the good times and memories. PS. Dianne, Rachel, DeAnne, and Sherry - I'll see you at work.

Diana Lynn Johnson

Di / DJ

DJ was also a member of the canteen committee, co-editor of The Seagull, vice-president of student council and co-ordinator of intramurals. Diana's future plans are to be free from anything that bothers her and close to everything that doesn't.

"Be free from anything that bothers you and be close to everything that doesn't."

I, DLJ, being of no mind and permanently injured body, leave the following: to Jackie-Lee (the butch brother), Rebecca and Melanie the thought "Ricky's gonna get you all." To Terry C. all my love and my grad ring which you had longer than me. To Tish, an "Au revoir" from Suzette and the name "gum women". To Shawn H., lose the knife. To George the thought that a Riverporter will never be smarter than a Lunenburger but they sure know how to party; thanks. To the teachers, I leave my brother Peter; he's exactly like me, have fun. Finally from the last original member of the "Fan Club" I say thanks, goodbye and "It's been a spew".

Edward Vincent Kozma

"Sweaty Eddie"

One of the few unoriginal Lunenburgers in the class, Eddie was born in Newfoundland and joined us in grade 4. Eddie is involved in volleyball, soccer, softball; he is a prefect and a librarian. In his spare time, Ed enjoys model making and aircrafts. He can also be found guarding the Colonel's secret recipe at Kentucky Fried Chicken. Next year, Eddie plans to further his studies as an Electronics Engineering Technician.

"Life is like a tennis match, you may lose a few points but it doesn't mean you'll lose the match."

I, EVK, being of obscure mind and devilish soul, leave to the teachers of LHS the thought that I am the last Kozma that you will have to deal with. To Keith D. and Jamie L., I leave my third of the barrel. To Rebecca N., I leave my tennis raquet with the intent that my talents will go with it. Finally, I leave the fact that the 11 herbs and spices shall go to the grave with me since there is no one to pass the secret down to.

David Roy Langille

"Lambchops"

David, a very eccentric member of our class; has been with us since primary. This year Lambchops was a member of the grad dance committee and was a prefect. In his spare time, David likes to play the guitar, listen to music and hunt. Next year, Dave plans to attend NSCC to continue his education.

"You know something?" This Isn't fair!"

I, DRL, being of tired mind and extremely hairy body, leave to my friend Liz my spot in our smoking area. "I hope you don't get as bothered as I did." To Mr. Jewers, I leave the thought that I won't be there to carry on with him anymore. To my girlfriend, Tina, "I love you!" Finally, to the teachers of LHS, thank you for the great memories and the final thought that I am not the last of the Langilles.

James Wade Oliver Levy

"Nortan"

Jamie was born in Bridgewater but joined our great class in primary. Jamie, being one of the more comical people in our class, was busy as co-head of grad dance committee, drug education programme and a professional plastic welder. Jamie's future plans are to go on to a higher education.

"Life is like a rose, pretty at first but it can turn and hurt you."

I, JWOL, being of absent mind and body, finally leave LHS. I leave behind all the memories and good times I had here. To Derek, I leave the ability to eat in math class, to David L., the ability to master the whoopee cushion, and to the rest of the class, good luck in the future. I am the last of the Levys but there's a new generation on the way, so look out! To the rest, who have yet to graduate, I leave you with one final note "Cwist You". Hey guys, "FYA".

John Charles Thomas Lohnes

"John"

John was born in Lunenburg and attended PVEC before joining us for his last year. John was a member of the Christmas dance committee and hockey, soccer, and basketball teams; as well as being a member of the ski club. During his free time, John enjoys floor hockey, cross country skiing, hunting and golf. Next year, John plans to attend NSCC or Halifax/Dartmouth Vocational School.

"If you see something you want, have it, but don't give up until you have succeeded."

I, JCTL, being of distorted mind and unused body, leave to Anthony M., the hope to find the pair of hooters he has been looking for. To Jason L., I leave my great hockey skills and my job on the trawler. To Kevin C., I leave the dream to own a new FOX. To Joe P., I leave my remarkable driving skills. To Tina P., I leave all my old math books and all my love. To the rest of my friends, I leave the memories we had together and I leave my final good-bye - "Gobble, Gobble, Gobble Chicken Soup".

Stephen D. Mader

"Joint"

Stephen, one of the quieter members of our class, was born in Lunenburg and has lived here all his life. He was actively involved in the hockey team and enjoys playing tennis, listening to music, going to Bridgewater, and sleeping in. Next year, Stephen plans to take a trade at vocational school.

"If you can't win the fair way then cheat."

I, S.D.M., being of burnt-out mind and simply ravishing body, leave to Mr. Goodine, a Philadelphia Flyers' sweater so he can go for a good team. To Mr. Jewers, a recorded tape of lectures entitled "I guarantee you...". To everyone else "nothing". And last, but not least, I am the last of the Maders.

Jennifer Anne Louise Mercer

"Jen"

Jennifer, one of the more hard-working members of our class, has been with us since day one. Not only was Jennifer busy as co-editor of The Seagull, but she also found time to be head of winter carnival, secretary of the student council, librarian, prefect, canteen member and a loyal band member. Jennifer can also be found at her early morning typing classes and working on the grad dance committee. Her future plans are to attend University. Jennifer will be a much missed member of our class but can be found, if needed, at Kinley's Drug Store.

"Life is possibility not predictability."

I, JALM, being of bruised body and defensive gullible mind leave to next year's editors a Lamborgini poster - Have fun! To Denise, the Winter Carnival and the task of trying to please everyone. To Chris VDB, I leave a certain nickname and unpayable debts. To my brother, I leave the quest of perfecting his obnoxious attitude. To the teachers of LHS (and Mrs. Andrews) a "Thank-you!". And finally, to my close friends, a "thanks" for all the memories and good times; they won't be forgotten.

Loretta DeAnn Mitchell

"DeAnn"

DeAnn was born way down in St. John's, Nfld. She moved to Lunenburg at age 3 . After two years at Lunenburg Academy, DeAnn attended Centre and PVEC and joined our grade 12 class this year. DeAnn helped with the homework hotline this year. When DeAnn is not working at Harbour View one may find her involved in Riverport partying.

"All the world's a stage and the men and women are merely players"
Shakespeare.

I, LDM, being of absent mind and queer body, leave the thought there is only one Mitchell left to come. My advice to you, Shelley, is not to talk a lot in Mr. B's English class. To Rachel, Ellie and Sherry, all I can say to you is "party on", and "the best of luck". See ya at work. Lator.

Wanda Jane Mitchell

"Bush"

Bush was born in Lunenburg and has lived here ever since. In school, Wanda is a member of the grad dance committee and is also a prefect and can be found constantly picking on Mr. Chamberlain. During her free time she enjoys sitting in the foodland parking lot with "the gang". Hey, Wanda - "Are you cereal?"

"True friends are like diamonds; precious and rare. False friends are like autumn leaves found everywhere."

I, WJM, being of worn out mind and body leave to Phyllis, Tanya, and Michelle, the thought that they are soon through. To Mr. Chamberlain, the fact that if there was ever a contest for 'dirty looks' I'd win (ha)! To my closest friends Mel, Cydi, and Ellie "don't forget to call." And to the graduating class of '90 thanx for all the fun and memories. I'll miss ya!

Cyndi Anne Oickle

"Cyndi"

Cyndi, having the great fortune to have been born and raised in Lunenburg, has been with us since our first day in school. In class, Cyndi is well known for always voicing her opinions. During her free time, Cyndi enjoys going to the beach, and, of course, driving around in her Nissan. Next year, Cyndi plans to take an accounting course at NSCC.

"Live life to the fullest!"

I, CAO, being of sound body and weary mind, leave behind my daughter Krystle who, unfortunately, will someday have the same teachers as I had and follow in my footsteps. My final words are "Good luck, you're going to need it!"

Randy Derrel Ottens

"Hans"

Randy, a very active member of our class, was born and raised in Lunenburg. This year Randy was Captain of the senior boys soccer team, a member of the hockey, basketball, and softball teams. He was also Male AA, coach of elementary soccer, co-chairperson of intramurals, and a member of the winter carnival, Seagull, grad dance, and Christmas dance committees as well as being a prefect. Outside of school, Randy is a member of the Lunenburg Merchants hockey team and enjoys tennis, golf and lawn bowling.

"You must learn to crawl before you can walk and you must learn to run before you can fly."

I, RDO, being of soccer infested mind and steroid body, leave to Kevn Smith, the thought that he is the last great Celtic's fan of LHS, to George Walker, the ability to lead the hockey team in both points and penalty minutes. Finally, I leave with great memories that will always stay with me. Thank you, LHS!

Scott Allen Redmond

"Scotty"

Scott was born in Lunenburg and has lived here all his life attending both town schools. This year Scotty was involved in the soccer, softball, and cross country teams. Outside of school, Scott has been involved in a drug program called SAID (students against impaired drivers) and can also be found working hard at the Save Easy.

"It's hard to be modest when you're so great!"

I, SAR, being of evil mind and body, leave the teachers the thought of no more Redmonds to go unless my brother Chris returns to school. I also leave Harold H. the thought of keeping the Montreal Canadians alive in school.

Daniel Jack Rudolf

"Dan-Dan"

Dan-Dan was born in Woodstock, N.B., and moved here at the age of three. Active in sports, Danny was an important member of the soccer, hockey, alligator wrestling, volleyball, softball and badminton teams. He was also a prefect and the author of this year's "Class Prophecy" and "Can you Imagine?" Next year, Dan plans to attend college and major in biology; but we know that whatever he does he will always be guilty of everything.

"If to live is to die, why must life be so serious?"

I, DJR, being of short-term mind and under worked body, leave to my sister AndyLou, a book entitled "LaMorre's Hand-language" in hopes that she may communicate with him as well as I did; to CVDB I leave Eddie Kozma's imaginary friend to go over SNL skits; to J.L., Amo, and J.P., I leave one man-eating squirrel; to Jeff L, and Trevor H., I leave a bottle of nitric acid to play with; and finally to L.H.S., I leave...uh...what was the question again?

Sherry Ann Stevens

"Sherry"

Sherry has been with our wonderful class since the very beginning. Sherry is kept busy as a prefect, librarian and member of the grad dance committee. She also gave up some of her free time, after school, to do the homework hotline for the jr. high. Outside of school, Sherry can be found working at Harbour View Haven, arguing with Jamie over the car, and making numerous trips to Halifax.

"Why do it today when it can wait
'til tomorrow!"

I, S.A.S., being of short body and absent mind, can't believe that I am finally graduating. The best part of graduating is that I don't have to put up with Mr Brison's boring essay's (ha ha). I leave to my sister Angela the thought of only having two years of high school left and I wish her the very best of luck in the future. I also would like to wish my closest friends DeAnn, Rachel, and Ellie, the best of luck and hope we won't become strangers. As Alf would say "See you later Agitator". Thanks to LHS for many memories. See ya!

Alexander B. Stewart

Alex lives in Bridgewater and attended PVEC before joining us for one semester. When he isn't entertaining the law class with stories of his car accident, Alex likes to go downhill skiing and sailing. Next year Alex plans to attend Saint Mary's University.

"Have a nice life!"

Christine Lorraine Tanner

"Chrissy"

Chrissy, yet another true Lunenburger, has been with us since grade primary. During school hours, Chrissy can be found using her authority (and smile) in the library and as a prefect. She is also a dedicated member of the typing class. After hours, Chrissy can be found working at the Lunenburg Day Care and in Riverport. Her future plans are to work with children.

"True friends are like diamonds - precious but rare. False friends are like common stones - found everywhere."

I, C.L.T., being of perverted mind and strange body, leave to Jen the memory of Arby's and Zellers. To Tara, my stuffed animals, if I die. To Dianne W., the ability of doing homework. To Michell L. or William M., my parking space. To David L, I give good luck for all our deep conversations and also thanks to David H. for all the help with homework. To those who know me remember "Feed the Birds". Finally, to all those who still call me "Christine" a bucket of manure. My name is "Chrissy". If you don't like it lump it!

Shannon Victor Wagner

"Shannon"

Shannon was born in Lunenburg but lived in Dayspring and only joined us in grade two. This year, Shannon was a member of the computer club and he was a prefect. Shannon also works at Harbour View Haven. His future plan is to become a computer technologist.

"Put off until tomorrow what you could have done today!"

I, SVW, being of corrupt mind and body, leave to Mr. Middleton, the thought that he will never have to call home again. To the rest, I leave the thought that I am the last of the Wagner clan.

Dianne Cheryl Wright

"Disie"

Dianne was born in North Sydney and lived in Stellarton until grade five when she decided to join us. A very active member of our class; head of the Christmas dance, grad dance and IWK committees, prefect, librarian, canteen worker, member of Peer Ed, TADD, typing and the Seagull staff. During her free time, Disie enjoys listening to music, working at Harbour View Haven and begging her father for the car. In the future, Dianne plans to work with the physically handicapped.

"Friendship is something you consider for the moment, but cherish for an eternity."

I, DCW, being of silly mind and under-estimated body, leave to LHS, the fact that there is only one more Wright. To my brother, Darryl, I leave the fact that he has two more years of boring novels and lectures. To my fellow graduates and students of LHS, I wish the best of luck. I leave with treasurable memories and that fact that I was "Wright" from the very beginning!

Tara Jane Wright

"Tara"

Tara was born in Lunenburg and moved to Bridgewater to start grade primary but made the wise choice to come back here and attend school. This year, Tara was a librarian, prefect, canteen worker, member of the typing class and a member of the Christmas Dance committee. She also had the pleasure of making hot dogs everyday at lunch time. Next year Tara plans to attend NSCC and take accounting but she will always be well remembered for her willingness to "Just agree".

"A penny saved is a penny earned."

I, TJW, being of perverted mind and body, leave to MDL, the ability to withstand the impossible. Also, I leave to Chrissy, the ability to have a smile on her face at all times. To Dianne, the Taco store and to Jen, I leave the ability to always smile when she looks at that certain magazine. And to the bald teachers I leave all my hair to patch onto their heads.

Shelley Mae Zinck

"S??T"

Shelley was born in Bridgewater and lives in First South. This was her first year with us. Shelly was an important part of the Sr. Girls Soccer team. In her free time, Shelley can be found partying in Riverport. Her future plans are to shave her head and become a member of the RCMP narcotics squad.

"Why quit when you're having fun"

I, SMZ, being of overly partied body and stressed mind, would like to thank the student body of LHS for making this year the best yet. To my math class, all I can say is "Shave your head" (ha ha) (including Mr. Chamelrain). To Mr. Brison, all I can say is "too bad so sad". To DeAnne, Sherry, Rachel and Ellie - see ya in the port. Lator!

Jacqueline Gertrude Misner

"Jackie"

A new member of our class, Jackie was born and still lives in Bridgewater. She attended Bridgewater High School but decided to give us a try this year for a semester. Jackie can usually be seen in the halls complaining about tests, fighting with Jamie, and resisting getting her picture taken. After hours, Jackie can always be found with Graham.

"Homework causes brain damage!"

I, JGM, of aging body and sound mine, leave to Julie L. the headaches in the morning. I leave to Jamie L., going through town blowing your horn at anyone you know. Thanks to LHS for letting me be part of your school. I leave all my love to Graham. Thanks to the people who helped me in my last year of school.

"HI...WHO ARE YOU?"

It has been a long ten years since the class of '90 graduated from the formidable school of LHS. This means, of course, that it is time for the dreaded class reunion.

Keith Dodge, owner and creator of the fabulous guitar-shaped yacht, "The Diana", was the man responsible for the reunion. He donated his time and efforts to supply the grads of '90 with a cruise to the mystic Tancook Island. Where the money came from for the reunion...nobody knows. But it is thought that the still single Keith runs three or four escorting services.

At 3:00 p.m., the guests began arriving. The first to appear was the ever unpredictable David Langille. Having bleached blond hair, purple lipstick and wearing nothing but a jock strap, David says that this time it is his turn to make the fashion statement. Trailing closely behind David was his new girlfriend, Sherry, who was also trying to make a fashion statement, was wearing nothing but a potato sack.

Next to arrive were Eddie Kozma, James Levy, and Jackie Misner. Each were rumored to own shares in Kentucky Fried Chicken, and each had to undergo therapy due to the toxic effects caused by the eleven herbs and spices.

All of a sudden, Stephen Black walked on board with girls literally hanging off him. He was found to be involved with Keith in the private escorting services. As Stephen walked by, Kevin Chisholm was seen hanging on the skirts of the pretty ladies. It was later found out that Kevin was Stephen's private doctor who provided medical care for the infected ladies.

To cause greater commotion, David Hirtle and hired body guard Jason Anderson scurried to the far neck of the yacht almost causing "The Diana" to tip. Everyone noticed that David had put on extra weight but later realized it was actually a large bullet proof suit he always wore since becoming a lawyer for the mafia.

Next to arrive were the feuding couple, Nils Aberson and Rachel Delaquis. It was noticed that Nils had placed acid on the seat where his wife had been sitting. It was also understood that David H. was going to press charges for indecent exposure.

Danny Rudolf arrived dragging on board two very large crates. This very successful doctor brought his first two patients. Keith opened the first box which said "Randy Ottens". As the crate doors flew open, the girls shrieked when they saw that half of Randy's body was missing. Keith then opened the other crate and, to everyone's surprise, found Randy and Scott Redmond joined together at a 90 degree angle.

Jerry Emberly and newly taken wife, Chrissy Tanner, arrived; each smelling of a foreign odour. It was later found that the lovely couple had gone into business for themselves selling Jerry's latest cologne. The main ingredient, of course, had been donated by Frank's Shell.

The long awaited foursome, consisting of Melanie Ernst, Wanda Mitchell, Ellie Hunt, and Cyndi Oickle, arrived. To everyone's surprise they were nuns. Everything turned to normal, though, when Cyndi yelled, "You wankers got a starin' problem?" In a related topic, Randy and Scott began sizing-up the nuns immediately,.

To add to the insanity, flower children Tara Wright, Dianne Wright, and Danielle Hillier walked on board. They were singing soft music right out of the days of Woodstock. When the lyrics were understood, they seemed to be singing about....No! ... Could it be?... Yes!... it's Shannon Wagner, the famous leader of the flower children. Again the latecomers attracted the sex-machine consisting of Scott and Randy.

As the reunion was going as planned, attention was drawn to the museum parking lot when a loud squeal was heard. It was John Lohnes up to no good again as he was dragging the Flyers' water-boy, Steven Mader, across the lot. As usual, the "FOX" was victorious.

When the next two "creatures" crawled on board, everyone began whispering. Nobody could believe that quiet people, like Jennifer Mercer and DeAnne Mitchell, would ever take up "Heavy Metal". The two were dressed in string leather bikinis with tattoos all over their bodies. The band was entitled "Super Blond".

Suddenly, there was a commotion as the RCMP Narcotics Squad jumped aboard. People fled in every direction until they realized it was only Shelley with a shaved head and several of her friends playing a practical joke.

The yacht was ready to leave the wharf when a short, very plump, and very hairy girl yelled "WAIT". It was our own Diana Johnson. Just when everyone felt bad about what they had done with their lives, along comes the once beautiful Diana. Everyone felt good about themselves again, even Scott and Randy, now that they had seen Diana.

As the yacht ventured on to Tancook, the guests reminisced. Even though there were several minor disputes among a few of the grads of '90, there was a type of relationship that could not be found in any other class. We were glad to be able to call each other "friends". Keith then went to Diana and gave her a hug.

L.H.S. IN THE 80'S

By: David R. Hirtle '90

The decade of the 80's has truly been a decade of change at L.H.S. The early 80's saw the introduction of the Lunenburg County District School Board, taking the place of the traditional town School Board and eliminating the position of supervisor of schools for the town.

The declining enrolment which had its origins in the 70's continued throughout the 80's. As a result, L.H.S. was faced with two attempts at changing the structure of the Lunenburg Town Schools. The first attempt in '84 met with bitter opposition from the students and community alike. A public meeting was held at which parents and members of the community discussed the matter with the School Board Executive. The students took an unprecedented step of staging a walkout. This walkout received much publicity from the local and province wide media which managed to attract much attention to the cause. Petitions were circulated throughout the community against the restructuring and eventually, over time, the School Board changed its mind about the whole affair and decided to leave things as they were, for the time being anyway.

The enrolment situation still did not improve over the next few years and in 1986, the Lunenburg County District School Board introduced its Long Range Plan for county schools which would see a total restructuring of schools in the town of Lunenburg. As in '84, Lunenburg was again destined to have its high school reduced to a Junior High facility and have Senior High Students transferred to Park View. Again, both the community and the students rose in protest and the School Board once again gave the school a reprieve when it decided to give the whole Long Range Plan further study.

It was at this time that L.H.S. would reverse its declining enrolment problem and enter into the History Books with the introduction of the Semester System. At this time, L.H.S. was the only school in the Province on the Semester System. Other schools had tried it but for some reason it was just not a workable solution to their particular problems. This was not to be the case for L.H.S. The Semester System was just what the doctor ordered. The malignancy of declining enrolment that had been eating away at L.H.S. for over a decade was now being killed off. The numbers are going up instead of going down. Some students were apprehensive about this new change at the time but as time wore on both students and faculty realized that this system was superior to the old term system and indeed students were learning more in its concentrated environment. And now, thanks to the success of the system at L.H.S. several other schools in the Province have converted to the system with great success.

The 80's have also seen the retiring of two long-time staff members, Vice-Principal and Librarian, Charles Andrews in 1985 and Special Ed. Teacher, Lucille Mosher in 1989. During the 80's L.H.S. also saw the leaving of long-time faculty members Mr. Garg, Mr. Smith, Mr. Fogolson, Mr. Jobb and Mrs. Kelly. It also saw the coming of Mr. Lenahan to fill the Vice-Principal's position and later Mr. LaMorre to fill Mr. Lenahan's position along with Miss Hartlen to replace Mr. Fogolson, Mrs. Carey to replace Mrs. Kelly and Mr. Henebery to replace Mr. Smith in the Physical Education Department.

After the retirement of Mr. Andrews the Library was taken over by a group of volunteers led by Mrs. Carey. These volunteers, along with Senior High student volunteers, continue to staff the library and participate in its reorganization.

The school's computer program has also come along way in the past decade. The 80's have seen much change in the technology of computers and the computer program at L.H.S. has certainly reflected this throughout every stage. In the early 80's the school used Texas Instrument computers and Vic 20's. From these the school progressed to a computer lab of 14 Commodore 64 Computers, most with color monitors, all connected to disk drive and printer peripherals. The courses have certainly changed too. In the beginning Computer Courses wOxe Senior High courses with Juniors having access to them only in nonclassroom situations. Now the greatest body of computer courses are taught at the Junior High Level because the need for computer literacy at an early age is now so great. Computer technology has also crossed over into the science lab with the purchase of the Chempac Lab System which runs on a Commodore 64 system and allows students to make scientific measurements in a highly accurate manner through the use of probes and other special equipment.

Throughout the decade of the 80's a greater selection of courses have been added to the program offered at L.H.S. This greater selection has allowed students to pick courses that will better prepare them for their endeavors after graduation as well as planting a stronger basis for courses at higher levels. As a result of the Semester System Honours Courses have been added to the High School Program Courses such as Biology, Chemistry and History taught at the Honours level provide the students with a greater challenge, stimulating them to learn. Also General Geography, Biology and History Courses have been added along with open Computer and Canada Studies credits to round off the course offering.

The 80's also saw the design and introduction of the School Crest. This crest, which bears true representation for everything that L.H.S. stands for, now appears on all school letterhead, report cards, merit certificates and Grad Rings. The school motto on the crest allows graduates to never forget their roots and the good sound basis of education that they have received.

All in all the 80's have been a decade of progress. The school has seen much change and faced many trials and tribulations. Ten graduating classes have passed through its doors and gone on to live their lives and be contributing members of society. The courses have changed and the people have changed but one thing has remained constant, Lunenburg has kept its High School and in this High School there are students wanting to learn and teachers wanting to teach them. No amount of change and progress can take away the basic fundamentals of an education. As long as there is a student and a teacher there will be learning! This is not dependent upon the year, the decade or even the century because it is simply human nature.

Our year as co-editors of The Seagull has been a stressful but very exciting experience. Through our many problems, in the financial area, we managed to put together a book full of memories and good times. We hope the students of LHS enjoy the 1990 edition of the yearbook because it reflects your year.

We would like to thank Mr. Robert Lewis and Mrs. Audrey Andrews for their time and assistance. A special thanks to Mr. Gary Chamberlain, our staff advisor, for his super support. We are also grateful to Stephen Black (business manager), and Kevin Chisholm (photographer) for their energy, enthusiasm and many hours of work often doing more than what was expected.

Finally, goodbye and thanks to LHS for making The Seagull what it is.

WINTER CARNIVAL 1990

Winter Carnival, this year, began with the first week of second semester. In the confusion of new courses and students, Winter Carnival was a bit over-shadowed but none-the-less fun for those who participated.

Tuesday was "Kiss for a Heart" day and juniors spent the afternoon bowling, watching movies, or using the gym facilities. Thursday was senior activity afternoon with skiing, bowling, or a movie. Mini Olympics were held Friday afternoon with such ever popular events like musical chairs, balloon shaving, mummy wrapping, and several others.

Special thanks to Denise Green who managed to pull off a successful junior pageant working around a major snow storm which meant the re-scheduling of the pageant. Congratulations to all the participants

To wrap up Winter Carnival Week there was a very successful dance held Friday night with music supplied by "Total Music Productions". At the same time canned food donations were received for the local food bank.

My Generation, the theme of Winter Carnival, was the brilliant suggestion of Stephen Black and Chris VandenBroeck. Thanks guys!

A special thanks goes to our advisor, Mr. Middleton, for all his help, particularly with the fund raiser variety show. To all committee members, many thanks for all the hard work in making this year's Winter Carnival a success.

This week at LHS

This week at LHS

After examinations are concluded it is once again time for Winter Carnival at L.H.S., a fun time for students and teachers alike. This theme is 'My Generation' because this decade all the present students at L.H.S. will be launched into the world to become the leaders of tomorrow. Winter Carnival runs from Monday, Feb. 1 to Friday, Feb. 5.

Junior High students do not have examinations at this point in the year. Under the Semester System at L.H.S. Senior High students complete half of their year's credits from September to January, and the other half from February to June when exams are again written. Junior High students are not on the Semester System and study seven courses from September to June and then write a paper on their year's work in a particular course, which is credited in that course. They have to write the exam.

Wed., Jan. 31 The Senior Band will be taking part in 'Music Fest' in Dartmouth during the last week of March and all bands will be taking part in the County Music Festival, which runs from Feb. 25th to May 2nd. Music is a very important part of any education and this point is certainly exemplified by the Band Program at L.H.S.

This past Monday, a Variety Show was held at the Community Centre to raise funds for Winter Carnival activities, featuring student performers the L.H.S. Jazz Band and Guitar Club. L.H.S. is fortunate to have a very strong band program under the direction of Mr. Teacher, Ms. Dawn Hartlen.

Students from Grades 6 to 12 enjoy playing in some four bands, B. Band, Junior Band, Senior Band, and Jazz Band which include who play instruments such as trumpets and trombones which fit into the concept of music.

For Senior High students at L.H.S., January marks the end of the first semester and those dreaded examinations are now only two weeks away. Exams for Senior High students begin on Wednesday, Jan. 31st and conclude on Friday, Feb. 2nd. Below is a copy of the schedule for Senior High Report cards went home to students at the end of last week. There will be no formal Parent-Teacher Visitation until April 24. If you would like to discuss your child's progress or marks in a course, you may call Mrs. Andrews at the school office (634-4003) and set up an appointment to meet with the particular teacher at a time that is mutually convenient.

February 7th and a Senior Activity Afternoon on the 8th, times for students to participate in fun activities. On Friday, February 9th, a Mini-Olympics will be held when students from Grades 6 to 12 participate in fun and rather weird activities including tricycle races and lifesaver juggling. That evening, the Winter Carnival School is so busy that we have no time for a relationship. We take full advantage of the opportunity that we have to nurture in knowledge. We do not stop to think that we are indeed fortunate to have such good educational facilities and the most necessary part of any endeavour to learn, good teachers. This is the theme behind 'Teacher Appreciation Week' that was held nationally from February 12th to the 16th. The Lunenburg Phew...what a season! Twenty games in eight weeks! The best senior boys soccer season on record. The season that promised so much had a disappointing ending: after seventeen undefeated games, L.H.S. lost two of its last three contests.

L.H.S. finished top of the Lunenburg-Queens league standings. Our school did the double over old rivals, P.V.E.C. In the county championship final, Lunenburg was leading 2:0 but lost 2:3! Similarly, L.H.S. were western regional "A" school champions for the first time ever. This was achieved through victories over New Germany and New Ross in local competition, then over Kentville and Bridgetown in regional play. These vicories were the highlight of the season. However, in the provincial championship semi-final the school lost to Kings-Edgehill, failing to score for the first time in the season.

The defence was outstanding all season. L.H.S. conceded less than twenty goals in as many games. Larry Morash was steady in goal and must work on his catching of high crosses. The back four were the key to the season's success. Lloyd Farmer was the best sweeper in the league. Scott Redmond, Trevor Lohnes and David Knickle marked well, were quick and tough. Mike Thornhill, Adrian Slauenwhite, Keith Dodge, Shane Patelakis were very able back-up defenders. The mid-field played some good soccer, hitting good passes forward: Danny Rudolph, Joe Parsons and Kevin Chisholm had their best season for the school. Up front, Randy Ottens and Jason Lohnes were clever and penetrating wingers with Nils Aberson hitting a school record of seventeen goals in the middle. Jason Anderson, George Walker and John Lohnes all made more than useful contributions. My thanks to Chris vandenBroeck for being an excellent manager.

The team truly deserves its place in the Mariners Hall of Fame.

Girls' Soccer

2nd row- (coach), Annette Symes, Cathy Ross, Tammy Heckman, Angela Stevens, Tonia Hunt, Rachel Delaquis, Diana Johnson (co-captain), Jackie Lee Myra (co-captain), Phyllis Savoury, Mr. Middleton (coach)

The senior girls had one of their most successful seasons in the last number of years. The team was able to place second in the Lunenburg County League Play with an impressive five wins and 2 ties and 3 losses. Lunenburg lost the County Playoffs when Chester scored the only goal of the game with thirty seconds remaining in the game.

In regional play downs Lunenburg was eliminated by Kings County Academy 5 - 2 in a two game total goal series.

Strong players for LHS this season were Diana Johnson at half-back, Jackie Lee Myra at centre forward and Angela Stevens at the "sweeper" position.

We look forward to another successful season next year!

I sit
 in a comfortable chair
 by a glowing fire.
 I'm at Whistler, B.C.
 watching the tall snow-covered spruce trees.
 In the mist of winter
 I see
 Cross Country skiers off in the distance.
 This is winter break

 I see people skating on a pond.
 I see the feel its warmth.

A group of cheerful skiers just came out of the cold.
 Their cheerful faces light up with joy.
 Some skiers are zig-zagging on the slope for their last run.
 I get up and walk out the door
 to my cabin.
 Snowflakes
 softly fall to the ground.
 A cheerful blanket of snow covers the old.
 As I walk I think the skiing will be good tomorrow.

WINTER'S NIGHT

A black night sky all around,
 but suddenly on the ground
 a white powder from the sky,
 on the flowers that have died.

Soon the sky is white,
 much to young ones delight.
 Soon the sky is full of lights,
 and so ends one winter night.

To Me Canada Is ...

Beautiful,
Bright,
Large but peaceful,
For miles around
she softly greets you.
Her fertile land
and lakes so blue.
Her cold, clammy
and warm, wet weather.
Her mountains high,
her plains of grain.
She stands lovely,
high and proud
Above the rest.
Canada.....
What a beautiful country.

DANCES

The crystal ball shone over the dance floor making tiny,
cubic,
silver blocks circle around the room.
It glittered and sparkled like tiny icicles dripping from the roof.

Twirling,
whirling in a clockwise direction

In The Trenches

Boom!
The noise of a gun cracks the air
like a whip
thrashed at a horse's back.
Another day of fighting has begun.
But in one trench,
Quietly,
Tenderly,
A father talks to his little daughter.
He is a soldier,
Weary,
Worn,
And laboured,
Whose wife was killed weeks ago.
As his daughter eats
the bread that he had brought,
he rises up
to fight once again.
But suddenly, there is a Crack!
Boom!
And he doubles over in pain.
The other soldiers gather around him,
and his daughter could not see him.
"Little one", he calls.
The little girl is let through,
and she knows something is wrong.
"Little one", says the father,
"I must leave you now,
But may God watch over you
While I sleep".
And he died.
The little girl stares in wonder,
Suspense,
Awe,
As a curious mouse.
"Daddy", she says, speaking as gently as light-falling snow,
"You're so cold, why don't you
speal to me?"
And as the little girl kneeled,
Tears fell from her wide eyes,
and the sun sank low
beneath the horizon.

Jennifer Goodine '93

It was the middle of a warm summer night in room 625.
The little old man was being given his drugs.
Two 442 pain killers.
They suddenly calmed
and soothed his nerves.
He got very sleepy.
The room went from a pale green
to a vivid red color.
The feeling was mellow,
relaxing,
his eyelids were getting heavy,
slowly,
silently,
lowering.
His feet were numb
and fingers on the way.
He is now asleep.

- Wendell Argyle '93

BEES

Millions of bees
hovered through the rustling field of late summer's goldenrod.

They lazily
spiraled
around the leaves
delicately balanced on swaying flowers.

Corkscrewed into the friendly sunshine
bobbed lightly on pink petals trailed yellow pollen through the air and hummed like miniature motors.

I crept silently
away
and left the busy community to
work.

- Sarah Marshall '93

The Alarm Clock

In the dark of sleep,
Silence
All is quiet.
Brrring!
Like a fire alarm it rings,
waking all in hearing distance.
Ringing,
annoying the owner.
Flashing time,
Changing so rapidly,
to come is the ultimate.
Alarm,
Clock.
Get out of bed.
I slowly get up,
and open my eyes.

MY POEM

by Lisa E. Symes

I know my room is messy,
you say so every day,
but that's the way I like it,
in every little way!

Yes, I know it's months before,
I decide to clean it,
but mom it is "my" room you know,
so please don't have a fit!

MY POEM

by Lori Bungay

I knew that you were special,
The moment that we met.
The love I feel for you right now,
Is something I won't forget.

We made our life together,
as one and only one.
Your big blue eyes and your big
bright smile,
Reminds me of the sun.

I thank God for the blessings,
He gives me every day,
The things you do, the things
you say in your little special way.

You're more special to me
Now then ever before
The friendship we once had
Has lead to something more.

You've helped me through troubles
Staying with me till the end
You're that person I can rely on
When in need of a friend.

Wherever you may go
Or if we ever part
You'll always have that place
Deep in my heart.

What I'm going to tell you
I've told you before
You're not just my boyfrined
You're my bestfriend and more!!!

- Jackie Lee Myra '92

DREAMING ABOUT THAT SPECIAL GUY

by Dianne Wrigh

Laying in my bed at night,
wondering what he's really like!
Does he know about my thoughts,
or even the pictures that I've got!

Oh, how nice he seems to be,
even though he doesn't notice me!
I wish he knew the way I feel,
too bad this fantasy isn't real!

Seeing you in the hall,
I hang my head just like a doll!
So afraid you'll laugh at me,
Oh, are you really what you seen to be?

I would love to have a chat with you,
but I can't think of what to do!
Sometimes I even cry,
because I'm afraid to even try!

At the dance I watch for you,
I wish you'd watch for me too!
I would love to be just your friend,
maybe then my heart would mend.

I dream about him day and night,
Even when he's in my sight!
Many memories for me to have will be,
"Dreaming of that special guy I wish to have."

NATIONAL SEA PRODUCTS LIMITED

National Sea Products Limited has had a strong association with Atlantic fishing communities like Lunenburg for close to one hundred years.

Our Lunenburg plant, together with our divisional fleet of 10 trawlers, including the Cape North, Canada's first factory freezer trawler, employs over 900 people and continues to play an important role in the economy of the area. With our dedicated employees using some of the most advanced technology available to the industry, National Sea's Lunenburg Division produces the highest quality of cooked, fresh and frozen seafood for markets around the world.

National Sea Products takes great pride in congratulating the 1990 graduates of Lunenburg Junior/Senior High School, and wishes you all success in your future endeavours.
