1996 YEARBOOK

LUNENBURG JUNIOR SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL VOLUME 61

PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

I would like to congratulate the Grads of '96 on taking the first giant step into the future. This year marks the end of your public schooling -- and you have succeeded! Your positive attitude and involvement have added to the success of the past year at L.H.S. Many of you have made a difference here and I'm sure you'll make a difference in whatever you choose.

To the rest of L.H.S. -- a challenge. Get involved in your school work, school activities and make us the best school we can be.

William Roblee,
Principal - L.H.S.

VICE-PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

I would like to congratulate the students of the 1995/96 graduating class. I hope that they will find success in any endeavor they embark upon in the future whether it be further education or employment. If you have a dream, work towards it and you will eventually be successful. Good Luck!

Wayne Jewers

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As the president of L.H.S. for the year of '95-'96 many details have come into sight that can not be seen by others. The responsibility of a student increases and that means time and effort that was not expected of you before. It also brings immense pleasure and pride into your life. One of these pleasures was the fact that I am the first transfer student to obtain the Presidents position. Every year more and more students are realizing that Lunenburg High is the place to be. It is these people who are making the school bigger and better.

I would like to thank all of the people who have helped me make the transition to L.H.S. especially Rod, and Lindsay, who were my campaign managers. With out all of you I would not be writing this now.

Good Luck to all the Grads and I am sure we'll see each other soon enough. Also thank-you to Mr. Roblee for all the inspiring conversations which kept me going when it seemed no one else could!

1996 Student Council President
Cynthia Hirtle

VICE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Another great school year has come to an end, with lots of memories and friends made. Being Vice President was unforgettable and the teachers and students have made the year one of the best, not to mention such a small school with lots of spirit.

As all the new students come to this school they get the L.H.S. spirit and that is what keeps the school years going. One of the key things you should always remember about your school years is the memories and the people who made them possible.

Good luck to the graduating class of 1996. It's been the best. Thanks.

1996 Vice President
Amanda White

A.A. MESSAGE

This year, unfortunately, the short lunch break made it not possible to run our intramural programs. This, however, didn't seem to effect the sports at L.H.S., or the "fan" spirit. The Sr. Girls soccer team had a large improvement from other years, the Sr. Boys did quite well also. Jr soccer went just as well with lots of spirit. The Jr. Boys Volleyball team had a great season; Jr. Girls had lots of fun as well. The Sr. Girls Volleyball team had a fun and successful season this year. Basketball at L.H.S. this year is in full force as always. And has the school spirit up and ready to cheer "Bring it on" as many times as it takes!

The teaching staff at L.H.S. is one with class and uniqueness.

The teachers are always there to assist you whether it is first thing in the morning, on our lunch break or late in the afternoon after classes have ended for the day. The teachers all participate and support the students in their academic standings and in all extra activities provided by the school. The secretaries keep us out of trouble by helping us with photocopying, ordering lunch and recess snacks, keeping track of the teachers when we need to find them, and what is going on throughout the whole school, if it was not for you we would all be lost. The students of the 1995-96 school year would like to thank these people for the educational and enjoyable year which we all have shared.

Thank you for caring enough to give all of us some of your time.

THE INVASION - A MEDIEVAL STORY

It was a sunny summer day in June or maybe May,
The cows were being milked a lot, the horses ate their hay.
The castle they thought was secure, the Scottish were still out,
But then they jumped a caravan while it was still en route.
The English had got thrown aside, the Scottish took the reins,
They went back to the castle where they'd put them all in chains.
They walked up to the castle gates they thought they were English,
Because they were in disguises and still brought back the fish.
They asked for an audience with the all-mighty king,
His assassination was the most important thing.
They wielded battle-axes as they went up to the throne,
The king was a little bit sick, he could not stop a moan.
The king understood their intent, he called for all the guards,
But they were all in the dungeon, just playing games with cards.
The king ran up to the tower, the Scottish just moved in,
The king looked all around him first, and then he found a pin.
The king attacked the five Scottish while they just laughed and grinned,
The pin was made of magic and it turned into a sword,
Very easily it cut straight through a two by four.
Meanwhile on a very high hill a mile or two away,
A few hundred Scotlanders were feeding horses hay.
The lookout saw the horrid fight on the castle tower,
He knew that if they were to win they needed more power.
The couple of hundred Scotlanders rode down into the fray,
They wanted to capture the castle right that very day.
Meanwhile back at the castle the king had won the match,
He threw them all into a cell and then he closed the latch.
And then he stopped all of the guards from playing their card games,
If they did that again he said he'd put them all in chains.
The disappointed guards all went back to their dismal posts,
And that was when they saw the Scottish starting to get close.
They called out all the extra knights and all the catapults,
They thought that at the sight of that, the Scottish would just bolt.
But the Scottish were still fearless, they continued the attack,
The English started to get scared and that is a true fact.
The catapults were loaded and the stones flew through the air,
And they missed all of the Scottish without an inch to spare.
So the knights went out to meet them and they charged into the fray,
But at the sight of all their weapons they just ran away.
Then the king was by himself, the guards were scared and left,
And on the way one of the guards committed a small theft.
He just stole the magic pin because it was shiny,
And when the king discovered that he was very angry.
The king knew that he would be killed if he just stayed to fight,
So he decided to run away with all of his might.
The Scottish took over the castle very easily,
And their friends in the dungeon were very quickly freed.
The Scottish kept the castle and it is time, my friend,
To say that the story's over and this is THE END.

OLD ENOUGH

Old enough to do what I want when I want how I want except one summer night when the sky was Black with sparkling diamonds in the sky I was racing down a hill in a red car then in the rear view mirror I saw red and blue flashes of light My Drunken Bloodshot eyes opened wide and my jaw sank into my chest. I was old enough.

Lashing my head around fast I yelled to my cousin "The police are behind us" He slowly slowed down and pulled to the side of the road my stomach quivered as I could hear the gravel under the warm tires of the car. The officer came to the black tinted window and rolled it down slowly he took out his thick black ticket book and asked him a few questions, I can't remember what the police said I was too zoned out, I was old enough.

Dead, my mother is going to rip off my head and pour hot wax down my blood neck but luckily enough he didn't give us a ticket and we got away scot free. A sigh as we roll away from the dead Maple tree lying on the ditch my cousin drove me home and I was old enough.

As I walked through the door I stumbled to the stair case and grasped the banister to catch my breath thinking of what happened that night and as I walked up stairs and down the dark hallway to my room and laid down seeing red and blue flashes, I was old enough.

All is lost, there's nothing more
Like a seashell crushed on a beating shore
She'll never be gone, will always remain
It happened so fast, it was such a shame
From the moment of birth, there was a death inside
The truth is the truth, there's nothing to hide
We will never forget her, in our thoughts,
in our heart
To grieve and overcome, is the beginning of a start.

The Fate Of Kurt Cobain

There was a leader singer named Kurt
His feelings, they were very hurt,
So he picked up a gun,
And when he was done,
His body was buried in dirt.

LOCHINVAR POEMS

Lochinvar

They galloped and galloped on their brave young horse
They did not even vary off their well planned course
The families rode towards them as fast as they could
They didn't want that young bride to be with someone from the hood
The closer and closer the angry families did come
But they couldn't catch Lochinvar and his bride on the run

Into the night Lochinvar and his bride did ride,
Leaving the young bride's family far, far, far behind
Over the pastures and into the sweet, smelling groves
Lochinvar came out smelling like a wild rose
They built a house out in an enormous pasture
Where Lochinvar was always master.

Lindsay Miller

Through bushes and heather they fled and they flew,
O'er mountains and valleys rode the courageous two
They rode on in the darkness, by the light of the moon
Gallant Lochinvar said aloud, "We'll be there soon."
Angry searchers, they rode as they sneered and they scowled
The whole family was nervous - now they grumbled and growled

With the light of day, the family did look,
But found no trace of their daughter or her crook
For the two lovers were gone far, far away
To live their lives together in the happiest way
In a quaint, little cottage on a rocky shore
Brave Lochinvar and Ellen were heard of no more.

ARGUMENT POEMS BY GRADE SIX

Smoking

People should not smoke because it's not cool
And can be addictive
And because it can make your teeth yellow
And it gives you bad breath
And because people won't like you
And because it's just plain stupid
And mostly because it can give you lung cancer.

Matthew R.

Scuba Diving

You should not go scuba diving
Because it's dangerous
and you could get eaten by a shark
and your air could get cut off and you could injure yourself and you could get knocked out by a rock if your not careful
and most of all you could die.

Felicia W.

Brother vs. Sister

Brothers are better than sisters
Because you mostly win when fighting
And you get them in trouble
And if your the oldest you get to stay up later
And you get to play boy stuff
And they are easy to beat up
Brothers are stronger than sisters if you are the oldest.

Alex B.

Bungee Jumping

I don't want to bungee jump
Because it would be scary
And you could hurt yourself
And you could get a head rush
And it's dangerous
And you could kill yourself
And I don't have anytime
But most of all I would be too scared.

Martha M.

Pizza vs. Spinach

I would rather eat pizza than Spinach
Because pizza tastes way better
And it is more than one color
And you can put just about anything on it
And it was first made by a person not a seed
And it has toppings
And it has all the food groups in it
But mostly it's the best.

Heather H.

MORE POETRY . . .

Confused Reality

It all went by so fast,
How did this happen?
Was it when I blinked because I thought I was paying attention.
Where have the years gone and where am I to go now, it was so easy before.
Get up and head off to where I was suppose to be, the same place everyone else would be, but everyone is not going to be at the same place now.
When or where will I see them again?
I have been with some of them for thirteen years and now I'm on my own.
To go where, to do what, they have it figured out, when will it be my turn?

The Best Of Friends

The best of friends,
Can change a frown,
Into a smile,
When you feel down.

The best of friends,
Will understand,
Your little trials,
And lend a hand.

The best of friends,
Will always share,
Your secret dreams,
Because they care.

The best of friends,
Worth more than gold,
Give all the love,
A heart can hold.

KNO

CLASS REUNION OF 2006

The reunion for the Grads of 1996 took place at the old Steel Ball Arcade which is now the most popular night club in Nova Scotia. Julie and Heather bought out Pierro and Jimi after Todd helped with investments since he now is the owner of all chains of the Bank of Montreal. The evening was filled with music sung by Justin Buckley now known as Buck Attack The Rapper. Among the first to arrive were Wendi and Jason dressed in bright tight racing suits, since they are now world famous race bike champions and their gleaming faces were hitting the news stands on Cycle Canada magazine. Following Wendi and Jason were Jared, Nick and Nancy. They had moved to Holland together remembering the good times they had on their school trip. They took Nancy over to Holland and bought the Blue Lagoon. Jared had a blonde on each arm and Nick came in with Nancy who is their bartender and manager of their establishment.

Now that people were starting to arrive, the entertainment was brought out. Denis the Belly Dancer moved to Hawaii after Graduation and studied the art of belly dancing and can now be seen all over the world on exercise programs. A hush comes over the crowd as Cynthia gets out of her Limo and enters the room. Cynthia plays Catherine Bell in the soap opera General Hospital, her dramatic acting captured the eyes of many producers. Before Cynthia could sign any autographs, Pat runs in dribbling his lucky basketball that he hopes will help him make it to the NBA someday. Presently he is playing college ball but the future looks very promising for him. From the parking lot screams and cries could be heard as Monique enters holding a long rope behind her where ten tiny hands are holding on, it's five boys and five girls. At the end of the rope is her husband carrying all Monique's baby bags. When Monique isn't taking care of her children she is designing houses for the rich. She can be seen socializing at many of the upper class gatherings.

The power flashes on and off and a piercing sound can be heard, everyone rushes outside to see what it is, a private jet has landed on the roof, out walks Melissa, Barbara, and Jan all with matching black suits. They enjoyed being in front of the video camera so much that they now have their very own talk show. It is the first show to be known with three hosts and is produced by none other than Kenmore. As everyone returned to the building Peter joined us wearing a brown uniform, informing us that he is now the Hall Manager for schools in the district. Mr. Roblee saw how much he enjoyed staying in the school lobby and referred him to all the surrounding schools and he is now chief lobby monitor. Heads turned as Sabrina and Sherry walked in, their hair was styled to perfection and they now are the owners of the F&M HAIR STYLISTS franchise now famous all over North America. Sherry and Sabrina know Melissa, Barbara, and Jan very well because they often style their hair for their show. Lorie Anne and Katie joined Heather, Julie, and Monique to discuss their partnership in the local drug store. Katie, Lorie Anne, Heather and Julie are thinking of joining to create a new business in Lunenburg where Monique would be designing the interior, but these plans are a secret until further notice. The five of them spoke to Tammy as she joined the reunion to ask her to help fund them as she won Ten Million Dollars on a 649 ticket one year after Graduation. Tammy also remained in Lunenburg and is helping to support the Lunenburg Heritage Society to open new businesses and restore the towns heritage sites.

Luke enters carrying the huge reunion cake. He has devoted his life to weight training after Graduation and now competes all over the world and has just flown in for the reunion from Australia. At first no one noticed who quietly slipped in behind Luke, it was Stephanie who had begun writing Horror novels after high school and is one of the best sellers in North America. A shot was heard outside as Robert comes in with one of his hunting guns. Robert hosts his own show "Learn To Hunt With Lambert." Closely behind Robert was Nikki, who is the stage manager for various groups and has met all the latest band members at different parties and get togethers. Laughter and giggles were heard as Karen, Jennifer, and Rhonda came in, they were all proud owners of a shopping mall in Toronto. After they had owned various clothing stores they decided to go together and buy a mall. Shannon pushed through the crowd and headed straight behind the bar to serve drinks. She is now the owner of five bars in Nova Scotia but stayed in one of her Halifax bars to be a bartender because she claims she can mix the best drinks in Canada.

Just as we all thought everyone was at the reunion the door was kicked open and Rodney came in wearing a police officers uniform. After saying hello to everyone he went straight to Todd, Julie, and Heather who he arrested for money laundering. Well the Class of '96 reunion ended, but before everyone went their separate ways we all gave a toast to our future success and happiness.
