ABOUT ME

Born with rhythm in his veins and shaped by the pulse of the underground, JHØN BARRERA brings a raw, magnetic energy to every stage he steps onto. As a DJ and producer, he's known for blending House, Tech House, Latin Tech, Minimal, and Tribal into a tight, percussive, and hypnotic flow.

Driven by groove and precision, JHØN BARRERA builds his sets like a ritual, layers of rhythm, rolling basslines, and subtle Latin influences that lock together into one continuous journey. His sound is minimal yet intense, clean yet warm, technical yet soulful.

Whether playing a dark club or an open-air stage, JHØN BARRERA has one mission: to create a vibe you feel in your chest and lead the crowd into a tribal-driven energy where rhythm becomes connection.

He's known for his versatility behind the decks, effortlessly moving between beach clubs, underground venues, and intimate dinner settings, always reading the crowd and adapting his sound to the moment.
