LETTER TO THE Romanos

Happy Sunday,

Like my spiritual director always said, "You are gonna want to be in that number when the saints go marching in!" And this month, more than any other, they are marching in! Saints Michael, Rafael, Gabriel, Therese, Francis, Faustina, Carlo, John Paul II, and the blessed martyrs of North America all celebrate their feast days this month. "Isaac Jogues (who appears on the cover) and his companions were the first martyrs of the North American continent officially recognized by the Church. As a young Jesuit, Isaac Jogues, a man of learning and culture, taught literature in France. He gave up that career to work among the Huron Indians in the New World, and in 1636, he and his companions, under the leadership of Jean de Brébeuf, arrived in Quebec. The Hurons were constantly warred upon by the Iroquois, and in a few years Father Jogues was captured by the Iroquois and imprisoned for 13 months. His letters and journals tell how he and his companions were led from village to village, how they were beaten, tortured, and forced to watch as their Huron converts were mangled and killed. An unexpected chance for escape came to Isaac Jogues through the Dutch, and he returned to France, bearing the marks of his sufferings. Several fingers had been cut, chewed, or burnt off. Pope Urban VIII permitted him to offer Mass with his mutilated hands: "It would be shameful that a martyr of Christ not be allowed to drink the Blood of Christ."

Welcomed home as a hero, Father Jogues might have sat back, thanked God for his safe return, and died peacefully in his homeland. But his zeal led him back once more to the fulfillment of his dreams. In a few months he sailed for his missions among the Hurons. In 1646, he set out for Iroquois country in the belief that a recently signed peace treaty would be observed. He was captured by a Mohawk war party, and on October 18, Father Jogues was tomahawked and beheaded." The blood of the martyrs is truly the seed of the Church, and next Saturday we will celebrate our own Georgia Martyrs who also gave their lives in love of Christ and the native American people. Let us ask for the prayers of them all as we approach this All Saints' Day.

God Love You,
Fr. Paul

JMJ

Feliz domingo,

Como siempre decía mi director espiritual: "¡Querrás estar entre los santos cuando desfilen!". Y este mes, más que nunca, ¡desfilan! San Miguel, San Rafael, San Gabriel, Santa Teresa, San Francisco, Santa Faustina, San Carlos, San Juan Pablo II y los bienaventurados mártires de Norteamérica celebran sus fiestas este mes. Isaac Jogues (quien aparece en la portada) y sus compañeros fueron los primeros mártires del continente norteamericano reconocidos oficialmente por la Iglesia. Siendo un joven jesuita, Isaac Jogues, hombre de letras y cultura, enseñó literatura en Francia. en 1636 abandonó esa profesión para trabajar entre los indios hurones en Quebec. Los hurones fueron constantemente atacados por los iroqueses, y en pocos años el padre Jogues fue capturado por estos y encarcelado durante 13 meses. Sus cartas y diarios relatan cómo él y sus compañeros fueron llevados de aldea en aldea, cómo fueron golpeados, torturados y obligados a presenciar cómo sus conversos hurones eran mutilados y asesinados. Isaac Jogues tuvo una inesperada oportunidad de escapar gracias a los holandeses, y regresó a Francia con las marcas de sus sufrimientos. Varios dedos habían sido cortados, mordidos o quemados. El papa Urbano VIII le permitió celebrar la misa con sus manos mutiladas: «Sería una vergüenza que a un mártir de Cristo no se le permitiera beber la sangre de Cristo».

Recibido como un héroe, el padre Jogues podría haberse relajado, agradecido a Dios por su regreso sano y salvo y haber muerto en paz en su tierra natal. Pero su fervor lo impulsó una vez más a cumplir sus sueños. En pocos meses zarpó para cumplir sus misiones entre los hurones. En 1646, partió hacia territorio iroqués con la creencia de que se respetaría un tratado de paz recientemente firmado. Fue capturado por un grupo de guerreros mohawk y, el 18 de octubre, el padre Jogues fue asesinado a hachazos y decapitado. La sangre de los mártires es verdaderamente la semilla de la Iglesia, y el próximo sábado celebraremos a nuestros mártires de Georgia, quienes también dieron su vida por amor a Cristo y al pueblo nativo americano. Pidamos sus oraciones al acercarnos a este Día de Todos los Santos.

Dios te ama,
P. Paul

SCHOOL NEWS

8 Years in a Row! Saint Mary's Catholic School Wins Best of Rome!

Eight years running, and we're still going strong! Saint Mary's Catholic School is honored to be voted Best Private School, Best Preschool, and Best Pre-Kindergarten in Best of Rome 2026, winning in every category for which we were nominated!

We are incredibly grateful to our families, parishioners, alumni, and community for your continued support and for believing in what makes Saint Mary's so special. We know the heart, dedication, and faith that goes into making our school a place where students thrive, and we are proud to see that recognized by our community.

Here's to another year of excellence, faith, and forming future servant leaders! Go Knights!
