Prayers for Guatemala

Creator God, builder and teacher,

We invoke you today and give thanks to you for the gift of life and the lives of our brothers and sisters in Guatemala. We give thanks for the gift of memory that helps us remember the thousands of Guatemalan victims of war.

Help us restore our flesh, our spirit, and faith in you, God, as we work toward hope and reconciliation in a country whose spirit and hope have been broken multiple times. Help us, Creator, to work toward restoring the spirit and faith of the thousands of Guatemalan victims of the genocide that took place in the country as a result of the 40-year civil war. Help us work toward restoring the social and cultural fabric that has been torn by the different acts of violence in the country. And God, help us remember that you are omnipresent and all-healing.

Invoking you, God, and your son Jesus Christ, we pray for all Guatemalan women, men, children, and elders who sacrifice their lives for the common good. We pray for them, and thank you for giving us examples of true discipleship.

Amen

Karyn's Kwips

Things are happening around the church this summer! Thews is here installing our new air conditioner just in time for this week's heat. Carl Scheeler, with help from Dennis Davis and Bill Aney, has been getting the sanctuary ready so the carpet should be installed any day. Carl has also been working hard on our exterior landscaping.

I just returned from my study leave. I read 6 books and started 2 more, worked on a sermon series for when I return from General Assembly (July 9-17), and spent two nights at a rustic campground near Lake Spokane where I spent time relaxing. Below are images of the books that I read while on study leave. If you would like to talk about any of them (or borrow one), let me know.

I am looking forward to this Sunday's worship in the park. I love worshipping outside in God's creation. I also love that we become church for everyone who is at the park for any reason. The potluck after is a bonus!

See you in church,

Pastor Karyn
