

RACE DAY REWARDS & PAYOUT SCHEDULE

All classes will receive race day recognition at every event, regardless of the number of racers in your respective class. All classes will receive series points. However, five or more racers are required to form a division for race day prizes. If there are less than five racers in your division, you will be grouped with the nearest division for race day prizes. Cash awards not picked up on race day can be picked up at any OMBC Series race. However, All Prize table awards must be picked up on race day only.

SERIES POINTS FORMULA & RACE DAY CASH PAYOUT SCHEDULE

OMBC SERIES CLASSES and payouts
TOP Three in each division:

Pro/Expert Class receives 100% cash payback based on $20, or cash award can be traded for prize table awards.

Masters Open 50+ Expert receives 85% cash payback based on $20, or cash award can be traded for prize table awards. Expert level racers that are 50+ have the option of racing with the younger Pro/Experts for the Series Expert Title or for the master's Open title. Each racer must specify which class they choose at registration and points are not transferable. If you are 50+ and no choice is specified, you will automatically be registered in the master's Open 50+ Class.

Sport Class receives 50% cash payback based on $20 entry or cash award can be traded for prize table awards.

Novice Class receives prize table awards. First place in each division receives first pick of the awards table from each division, then second place, third place and deeper if announced. Racers must pick up awards at the race. Awards will not be shipped or held over for future races.

Women's Classes: EBike, Pro/Expert, Sport, Novice

Clydesdale Class (200 lbs. & up): Sport Class

Single Speed Open: Pro/Expert Class. Must be 5 or more for race day awards.

Registration age is racer's age as of December 31 of the current year.

There must be at least 5 to form an age division for each event. If there are less than 5, racers will be grouped with the next higher age group. However, all division winners who complete the minimum required number of races will be recognized for year-end awards.
