Is Luxe Right for You?

Luxe is ideal for homeowners seeking premium materials, distinctive character, and cabinetry that showcases the natural beauty of White Oak and Walnut.

Best For:

Premium wood cabinetry • White Oak • Walnut • Mixed finishes • Statement islands • Luxury kitchens • Built-Ins • Home offices • Bars

Choosing Your Wood Species

Walnut and White Oak each offer a unique look and feel. Walnut provides rich warmth and depth, while White Oak offers a lighter, more organic appearance. Both showcase the natural beauty of real wood and create cabinetry that feels timeless.

Choosing Your Finish

Luxe cabinetry is most often finished with natural or lightly toned stains that enhance, rather than hide, the beauty of the wood. Matte and low-sheen finishes are especially popular for highlighting the grain and texture of Walnut and White Oak.

Because every piece of wood is unique, we recommend viewing samples in your home before making a final decision.

Built for Everyday Living

Walnut and White Oak are premium hardwoods chosen for both beauty and durability. As they age, they naturally develop a richer patina that adds warmth and character over time.

WOOD SPECIES & STAIN INSPIRATION

These samples showcase the natural beauty of Walnut and White Oak in a variety of finishes. Because every piece of wood is unique, natural variation in color and grain is part of what makes each project one of a kind.

WALNUT

Rich color, flowing grain, and timeless character make Walnut a favorite for homeowners seeking warmth, depth, and understated luxury.

WHITE OAK

Clean, organic grain and soft natural tones give White Oak a bright, refined appearance that complements both modern and classic homes.
