The Resurrection of the Lord

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Full text: John 20:1-9)

We are a resurrection people who follow the risen Christ.

The empty tomb is a sign of hope. Death does not have the final word. If our life with Christ can overcome even the seeming finality of death, God's mercy can also overcome all pain and sorrow. If we bind ourselves to Christ, earthly suffering will be vanquished. We can rejoice and be glad with hearts full of peace.

SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Message from Fr. Jose Macoy

The Lord is Risen, Alleluiah!

Happy Easter to you, brothers and sisters.

Easter is not just a single-day celebration but a season that invites us to experience the joy of Christ's resurrection and the promise of new life.

Easter is a time to rejoice in the victory over sin and death, fostering a spirit of hope among us.

Easter season calls for unity within the Church, reminding us of our shared beliefs and the importance of supporting one another in faith.

Let us continue praying for one another in our longing to see the risen Christ in the ordinariness of our everyday life.

Sincerely,

Fr. Jose
