Fifth Sunday of Easter

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

God has made us a chosen race and a royal priesthood. In him we find our deepest identity.

The second reading from the First Letter of Peter provides a beautiful and yet challenging description of who we are as Christians. We are, by virtue of baptism, a chosen race, a royal priesthood, and a people set apart to give praise to God. Taken together, these statements remind us what a grace and privilege it is to be chosen, but they also reassure us of how God sees us and how we ought to see ourselves and others. Everything we do must reflect this holy and royal status.

AN INVITATION TO STEWARDSHIP

by Mary Beth Costales | April 13, 2026

You are a parishioner who faithfully attends church each week. You spend time with the Lord at home in prayer. Do you ever walk out of church thinking, "I wish I could be an active participant at Holy Rosary Parish in an additional capacity"? A meaningful opportunity awaits.

Within the Catholic Diocese of Honolulu, there exists a Stewardship and Development Office for all parishes in Hawaii to help foster planning and manage resources. Involving Time and Talents, it encourages volunteering in ministry and serving on committees to support the church. It also involves treasure, including finances, property, and environment, with an emphasis on building the church and fostering spiritual growth. Consultation and assistance are also available to parishes conducting fundraising efforts.

Our Holy Rosary Church Stewardship Representative is Theresa Malapira, who has served since Father Elias Escanilla was our pastor. Her husband, Ramon, 42 years married, is her right-hand man/husband! She is a lifelong member of our church.

Over the years, Theresa has attended many retreats on the subject of stewardship. She has accumulated much knowledge in this area and is now on a mission to expand the committee with the goal of encouraging Holy Rosary parishioners to join existing ministries, as well as to spark new ministries.

Theresa invites you to take that step in your discipleship. To learn about how you can grow your spirituality while helping our parish thrive, please reach out to Theresa at Mass or by email at themalapira@aol.com.
