Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Trusting Jesus as Lord, let us ask for God's grace to follow him.

Who do you say that I am? If we confess, like Peter, that Jesus is Messiah and Lord, there should be evidence of this in our lives. If Jesus is Lord of Sunday morning, he should be Lord of Saturday night. He should also be Lord of our speech and our actions. When we walk closely with Jesus as disciples, we will begin to look more like him. (FAITH Catholic Subscriptions, 2026)

HOLY ROSARY CHURCH HOLDS SUCCESSFUL 3RD ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

by Almie Lonzaga

Despite the stormy weather on August 15, 2026, golfers proudly showed their support for Holy Rosary Church by coming out and playing in our 3rd Annual Golf Tournament. Their dedication and positive spirit helped make the day a success.

Following the tournament, everyone gathered at St. Anthony's Parish Hall for a festive luncheon. Golfers were welcomed with door prizes, delicious pupus, and refreshing sangria. Guests enjoyed a wonderful variety of food from Tante's, while Chef Chris Gutierrez provided an exciting teppanyaki experience on the side.

The luncheon program was expertly emceed by Jodi Martins, who filled the afternoon with fun and laughter as tournament winners were announced and additional prizes were drawn. The generosity of our parish community was truly evident, as many of the prizes were donated by parishioners and supporters.

A heartfelt mahalo goes out to our organizer, Karen Laborte, co-chairman John Costales, and our platinum sponsor, James Tavares, for their leadership and commitment. We also extend our deepest gratitude to all of our sponsors, donors, committee members, volunteers, and parishioners who generously gave their time, talents, and financial support. Your contributions, whether large or small, played a vital role in making this event a success.

We are pleased to report that the tournament raised approximately $24,500, with the final amount to be shared at a later date.

On behalf of Holy Rosary Church, mahalo nui loa to everyone who sponsored, donated, volunteered, and participated in this event. Your generosity and willingness to support our parish mission continue to strengthen our faith community. We could not have achieved this success without you. Thank you for your kindness, your dedication, and your unwavering support.

Mahalo and God bless!
