Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' 'Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. "Many are invited, but few are chosen." (Full text: Matthew 22:1-14, usccb.org)

We are invited to the heavenly feast.

Both the first reading and today's Gospel portray the heavenly kingdom as a banquet. Each time we participate in Mass, we receive a foretaste of this heavenly feast and are nourished by Christ's Body and Blood. We can prepare for the feast with repentance and by clothing ourselves with good deeds. (FAITH Catholic Subscriptions, 2026)

FEAST OF OUR LADY, QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

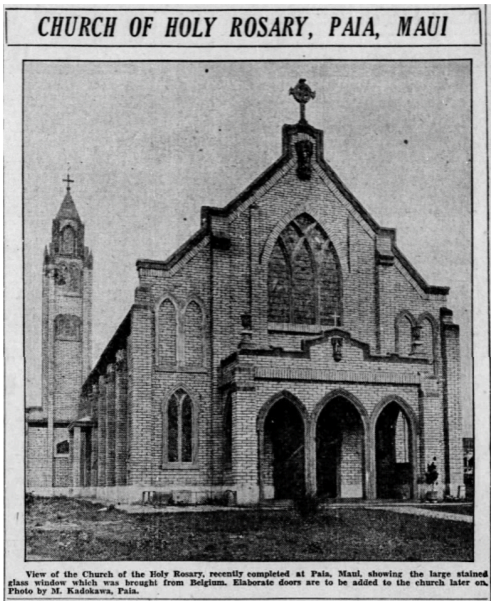

CELEBRATING FAITH, HISTORY, AND GRACE IN OUR CENTENNIAL YEAR

by Almie Lonzaga

As Holy Rosary Church joyfully celebrates its centennial year, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary holds special significance for our parish family. This beloved Marian feast reminds us not only of the power of prayer through the Rosary, but also of the enduring presence of the Blessed Mother, who has guided and protected our community throughout the past century.

The Rosary has long been one of the Church's most treasured devotions. Through its prayers and mysteries, the faithful journey with Mary as she leads us to a deeper relationship with her Son, Jesus Christ. For generations, families have gathered to pray the Rosary in their homes, churches, and communities, finding comfort, strength, and hope in times of joy and hardship.

This year, as Holy Rosary Church commemorates 100 years at its present location in Pāʻia, we reflect with gratitude on the countless parishioners whose faith built and sustained our parish. The cornerstone of the current church was placed in January 1926, and the church was dedicated in February 1927. Since then, Holy Rosary has remained a spiritual home for generations of Maui families, rooted in prayer and strengthened by devotion to Our Lady.

HONOLULU STAR-BULLETIN, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1927

Let us pray:

"O Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, guide us ever closer to Jesus. Bless our Holy Rosary Parish as we celebrate this centennial year. May we continue to be a community of faith, hope, and love for generations to come. Amen."

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us.

Holy Rosary Church, a century of faithfulness through Mary's fullness of grace.

The parish's centennial theme, "A Century of Faithfulness through Mary's Fullness of Grace," beautifully captures the role of the Blessed Mother in our history and mission.

The title "Queen of the Most Holy Rosary" reminds us that Mary reigns not with earthly power but with loving maternal care. As Queen, she continually points us toward Christ and encourages us to meditate on the mysteries of His life, death, and resurrection. The Rosary is often called a "school of prayer" because it teaches us to contemplate God's saving work while growing in faith, hope, and charity.

During our parish's Golden Jubilee in 1976, the 15 Mysteries of the Rosary were blessed and displayed at the front of the church, further highlighting the deep Marian devotion that characterizes Holy Rosary Parish. That devotion continues today as we celebrate our centennial and look toward the future with confidence in God's providence.

As we gather this year for the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, let us renew our commitment to praying the Rosary regularly, whether individually, as families, or as a parish community. May we thank God for the blessings of the past 100 years and ask the Blessed Mother to intercede for our parish, our island, and all who seek her Son.
