Message from Our Priest

The Grace of the Plenary Indulgence at Christmas

During the Christmas season, the Church, as a loving mother, offers us a great spiritual gift: the possibility of obtaining a plenary indulgence, that is, the complete remission of the temporal punishment due for sins whose guilt has already been forgiven in Confession.

This gift is neither automatic nor superficial. It is a grace that presupposes a truly converted heart, one that sincerely desires to love God above all things and to break decisively with sin.

What is required to obtain a Plenary Indulgence?

The Church asks us to fulfill four conditions, lived with faith and sincerity:

1. Sacramental Confession

Approach the Sacrament of Reconciliation with a repentant heart, desiring a new life.

2. Eucharistic Communion

Receive Christ in the Eucharist with reverence and love, united with the whole Church.

3. Prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father

Pray, for example, one Our Father and one Hail Mary (or another prayer), in communion with the universal Church.

4. Complete detachment from all sin, even venial

This condition is essential. It does not mean being perfect, but rather not clinging voluntarily to any sin, not excusing it or justifying it. The heart must be sincerely resolved to leave behind everything that separates us from God.

In addition, one must carry out the indulged work, such as:

- Devout participation in the liturgical celebration of Christmas.
- Eucharistic Adoration.
- Praying the Rosary in family or in community.
- Reading and meditating on Sacred Scripture with faith and recollection.

A Heart That Welcomes the Christ Child

The Child born in Bethlehem does not seek a comfortable heart, but a humble and available one. The plenary indulgence is a concrete invitation to begin anew, to allow grace to heal what has not yet been fully purified.

Let us live this Christmas not merely as a tradition, but as a true opportunity for conversion and interior renewal. Let us draw near to the sacraments, allow ourselves to be reconciled with God, and receive with gratitude the abundance of His mercy.

“Today a Savior has been born for you” (Lk 2:11).

May He find in us a heart well prepared.

Father Luis
