

Meaningful Work For All

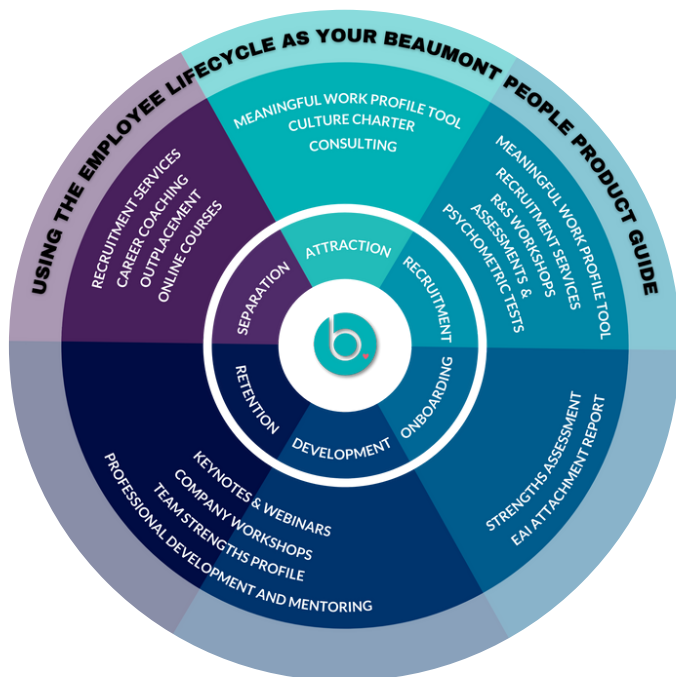

Beaumont People exist to connect people to meaningful work and to create more opportunities for meaningful work in Australia.

We recognise that access is not equal for all, so we are committed to creating access to meaningful work amongst under-served communities.

Our core objective is to increase sustainable employment opportunities for people with barriers to work, improve access to the job market and deliver a diverse and equitable talent pool to our clients. building both client and candidate confidence.

Our aim is to collaborate with our clients and communities to create inclusive workplaces where people, teams and organisations thrive and to create belonging and an empowered workforce to lead the future.

We believe action is required to embed Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion within organisations throughout the employee lifecycle to ensure long lasting, positive change.

- We Transform organisations through our recruitment services and our inclusive Jobseeker Board
- We Develop understanding through our inclusion workshops, webinars, and LEAD Mentoring Program
- We Coach organisations to embed inclusion into their DNA through our strategic DEA&I Consultancy
