

League of Colored Base Ball Clubs (1887)

The League of Colored base Ball Clubs or National Colored League as it is sometimes called was comprised of six teams representing the following teams:

Baltimore Lord Baltimores
Boston Resolutes
Louisville Falls City
New York Gorhams
Philadelphia Phythians
Pittsburgh Keystones

The “league” only lasted a couple of weeks before it folded. Financial considerations were the prime cause of the failure of this monumental undertaking.