

National Association of Colored Professional Baseball Clubs in the United States and Cuba

The “league” was formed in October of 1906 primarily through the efforts of Walter Schlichter who also owned the Philadelphia Giants. The “league” officials who were elected in 1906 were as follows:

Walter Schlichter	President
J. W. Connor	Vice President
Nat Strong	Secretary
J. M. Bright	Treasurer
Manuel Camps	Board of Trustees
E.B. Lamar	Board of Trustees

The “league” began play in 1907 and lasted for three seasons from 1907-1909.

The final “league” standings by season are:

1907	Team	Won	Lost	Tie	Pct.	Place
	Philadelphia Giants	13	7	0	.650	1 st
	Cuban Giants	5	5	1	.500	2 nd
	Brooklyn Royal Giants	10	14	1	.417	3 rd
	Cuban Stars	2	4	0	.333	4 th
1908	Team	Won	Lost	Tie	Pct.	Place
	Brooklyn Royal Giants	19	10	1	.655	1 st
	Philadelphia Giants	16	15	0	.516	2 nd
	Cuban Giants	6	12	1	.333	3 rd
	Cuban Stars	3	7	0	.300	4 th
1909	Team	Won	Lost	Tie	Pct.	Place
	Brooklyn Royal Giants	9	3	0	.750	1 st
	Cuban Stars	8	5	0	.615	2 nd
	Philadelphia Giants	6	12	0	.333	3 rd
	Cuban Giants	0	3	0	.000	4 th