

Dress Code

ACROBATICS: The dress code requires any color leotard or biketard. Fitted dance shorts are optional, but footless tights are required. Class is performed barefoot. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

BALLET AND POINTE: The dress code requires a black camisole leotard with pink tights and pink ballet and/or pointe shoes. Hair must be secured in a low bun.

BALLET/TUMBLING: The dress code requires a CBSD black or pink leotard without a skirt, along with light toast footless or convertible tights. Hair must be secured in a low ponytail or low bun. White leather ballet shoes.

CONTEMPORARY: The dress code requires a black leotard, fitted camisole, or solid crop top, worn with fitted shorts and either footless tights or leggings. Dancers may be barefoot or wear foot undeez or Capezio turners. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

CREATIVE MOVEMENT: The dress code requires a black CBSD leotard with white tights and white ballet shoes. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun. Boys are required to wear a fitted T-shirt, black pants, and black ballet shoes.

HIP HOP: The dress code requires a solid black t-shirt or the official CBSD hip hop t-shirt with black sweatpants or shorts. Loose-fitting clothing is permitted, but jeans and street shoes are not allowed. Black Hip-Hop shoes. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

JAZZ: The dress code requires a black leotard or sports bra with capris, leggings, or fitted dance shorts. Light Toast tights must be worn. Students ages 7–10 must wear tan jazz shoes, while students ages 11+ must wear black jazz shoes. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

LATIN DANCE: The dress code requires a black leotard, fitted camisole, or CBSD Latin t-shirt with black leggings, fitted dance shorts, or a skirt. Light Toast tights are essential if leggings are not worn. Black character shoes are mandatory. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

Male students must wear a solid black t-shirt with black pants and black Cuban heel shoes.

LATIN PERFORMANCE TEAMS: The dress code requires a black leotard, fitted camisole, or CBSD Latin t-shirt with black leggings, fitted dance shorts, or a skirt. Tights are required if leggings are not worn. Performance Team members will need rhinestone nude heels.

MEXICAN FOLKLORIC: The dress code requires a black leotard or camisole with black leggings. A practice skirt is mandatory and must be purchased through CBSD. Black character shoes are required; hair must be secured in a bun. Male students must wear a black solid t-shirt and botines without nails.

PRIMARY BALLET: The dress code requires a pink camisole or capped sleeve leotard with pink tights and pink ballet shoes. Hair must be secured in a low bun.

TAP / BALLET COMBO: The dress code requires a black or pink leotard; a skirt is optional. White tights are required, along with white ballet shoes and white tap shoes. Hair must be secured in a ponytail or low bun.

TAP The dress code requires a black, tight-fitted shirt, crop top, or black leotard paired with capris, leggings, or fitted dance shorts. Hair must be secured in a bun or ponytail. Male students are required to wear a solid black t-shirt with black pants and black tap shoes. Ankles must remain visible at all times.

ALL DANCE ATTIRE AND ACCESSORIES MUST BE PURCHASED AT THE STUDIO

When students follow the proper dress code, it ensures the instructors to be able to see the dancers alignment and positioning. A dress code enhances their confidence and teaches them discipline. By not following the proper dress code and correct hairstyle it becomes a huge distraction**

