SEND HOLIDAY CHEER TO A SOLDIER OVERSEAS

- Each card should be in an envelope that says: Dear Soldier (non-gender please)
- Inside write a holiday note: Greetings from Topeka, KS. Thank you for your service.
- And anything else you'd like to write with the ending of Happy Holidays.

Please deliver your cards to Linda Holmquist by October 30th. For your convenience, you may drop your holiday cards at the Manchester front desk and we will ensure they get delivered to Linda.

Taxes, Traps and Turnarounds

Matthew 22:15-22

We belong to God. While we have responsibilities to others and institutions of various sorts, if we give them a higher priority than God, we set ourselves up for failure. Using the trap the religious leaders set for Jesus with regard to paying taxes to Caesar, we look at ways we can avoid the traps and follow Christ faithfully.
