12 - Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults Policy

Purpose

This policy defines 'safeguarding', 'abuse' and gives other relevant information about safeguarding. It also tells people what they should do if they see or suspect that a vulnerable adult is being abused.

What is safeguarding?

Safeguarding means protecting people's health, well-being and human rights, and enabling them to live free from harm, abuse and neglect.

Safeguarding is about protecting certain people who may be in a vulnerable situation. These people may be at risk of abuse or neglect if someone else does something that they should not do or does not do what they should do.

Safeguarding adults includes:

- Protecting their rights to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect.
- People and organisations working together to prevent the risk of abuse or neglect, and to stop abuse or neglect from happening.
- Making sure people's well-being is promoted, taking their views, wishes, feelings and beliefs into account.

What is abuse?

Abuse is a misuse of power and control that one person has over another. Where someone is dependent on another, there is the possibility of abuse or neglect unless enough safeguards are put in place.

It can happen when a vulnerable adult is persuaded into a financial or sexual exchange they have not consented to, or cannot consent to. Abuse can occur in any relationship and may result in significant harm or exploitation.

Some types of abuse are illegal. If the Trustees suspect that a crime against a person has been committed, the matter will be referred to the police. Sometimes an urgent referral to police is made for the safety of the vulnerable adult or to preserve evidence.

Types of Abuse

Abuse can take many forms. It might not comfortably fit into any of these categories, or it might fit into more than one.

1 - Physical

This includes assault, hitting, slapping, pushing, giving the wrong (or no) medication, restraining someone or only letting them do certain things at certain times.

2 - Domestic

This includes psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional abuse. It also covers so-called 'honour' based violence.

3 - Sexual

This includes rape, indecent exposure, sexual harassment, inappropriate looking or touching, sexual teasing or innuendo, taking sexual photographs, making someone look at pornography or watch sexual acts, sexual assault or sexual acts the adult did not consent to or was pressured into consenting.

4 - Psychological

This includes emotional abuse, threats of harm or abandonment, depriving someone of contact with someone else, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, putting pressure on someone to do something, harassment, verbal abuse, cyber bullying, isolation or unreasonable and unjustified withdrawal of services or support networks.

5 - Financial or material

This includes theft, fraud, internet scamming, putting pressure on someone about their financial arrangements (including wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions) or the misuse or stealing of property, possessions or benefits.

6 - Modern slavery

This covers slavery (including domestic slavery), human trafficking and forced labour. Traffickers and slave masters use whatever they can to pressurise, deceive and force individuals into a life of abuse and inhumane treatment.

7 - Discriminatory

This includes types of harassment or insults because of someone's race, gender or gender identity, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.

8 - Organisational

This includes neglect and poor care in an institution or care setting such as a hospital or care home, or if an organisation provides care in someone's home. The abuse can be a one-off incident or repeated, on-going ill treatment. The abuse can be through neglect or poor professional practice that might be because of structure, policies, processes and practices within an organisation.

9 - Neglect and acts of omission

This includes ignoring medical, emotional or physical care needs, failure to provide access to educational services, or not giving someone what they need to help them live, such as medication, enough nutrition and heating.

10 - Self-neglect

This happens when someone is not caring for their own personal hygiene, health or surroundings. It may include hoarding.

11 - Forced marriage

Forced marriage happens across all cultures. It's when someone is pressured into an arranged marriage or forced to marry someone they haven't freely chosen. It can also happen if someone lacks the mental capacity to make their own choices. If we suspect abuse involving a forced marriage, we will refer the matter to the Forced Marriage Unit.

Who could be an abuser?

Adults at risk can be abused by a wide range of people – anyone, in fact, who has contact with them. This includes family members, professional staff, paid care workers, volunteers, neighbours, friends and associates, people who deliberately take advantage of vulnerable people, strangers and people who see an opportunity to abuse.

Abuse can also be done by one vulnerable adult towards another. This is still abuse and should be dealt with. The vulnerable adult who abuses someone else may also be neglecting him/herself that could also be a reason for a safeguarding referral.
