

OPERA

When The Lamplighters in San Francisco scooped Carly up to begin purveying the works of Gilbert and Sullivan (G&S) little did they know the journey that was ahead. Carly's vocal change in their 30's to contralto opened the door to many new opportunities. They first understudied Catiscia (Katisha) in Il Ducato (The Mikado)

<https://youtu.be/S4vFZ8X71ns?si=T8y-G3jrsK6GRM> and then got to be part of the most epic production of Ruddygore whose story took place in Mexico instead of the original Cornwall.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UnhL GaizhMY>

As a non-binary actor, Carly was elated to step into the chorus of Pirates of Penzance, portraying a swashbuckling tenor. <https://youtu.be/TJO04cy0Ukl>

They hopped over to Troupers Light Opera in Connecticut to play Buttercup in HMS Pinafore

https://youtu.be/UlhJzVtVrnk?si=i9eWh4Y2V_vTlcB-

And headed back to The Lamplighters to portray Mrs. Partlett in The Sorcerer. <https://youtu.be/wvieK0bmy38>

Upcoming:

Carly is the first non-binary Sir Joseph Porter, KCB in HMS Pinafore with the Lamplighters in August 2025! They're beyond excited to sail the seas as an old gay british man who is afraid of water.

Tickets here: <https://lamplighters.org/lamplighters-2024-25-season/>

*Simulcast tix available for streaming