Frequently Asked Questions About Estate Gifts

When is the right time to complete, sign, and share this Estate Gift Confirmation Form with NCM?

NCM welcomes benefactors to share a completed and signed form at any time after establishing estate plans that include a gift to North Country Ministry.

If I inform NCM that I have included a gift in my estate plans, may I revise or revoke my gift at a later date?

Yes.

Estate commitments to NCM are nonbinding and may be changed or revoked at any time at the benefactor's discretion. If your plans change, we kindly ask that you notify us so we may update our records accordingly.

May I designate the use of my estate gift?

Yes.

You may choose to direct your gift to the area of greatest need or designate it to a specific NCM program or purpose.

Two steps to become a Legacy Angel:

- Consult with your attorney and financial advisor to explore planned giving options and determine what best aligns with your personal and financial goals.
- Complete the NCM Legacy Gift form or contact Kayla at the NCM office to request a printed copy. Once completed, we kindly ask that it be returned so we may honor and document your generous intention.
